WM. BUCKLEY NOT GUILTY, DECLARES GILLETT

Governor Commutes Sentence of Convicted Murderer to Fifteen Years

WILL ENABLE PRISON DIRECTORS TO PAROLE

Eventually Accused Man Will Be Given Freedom by Chief Executive

SACRAMENTO, Sept 21—Governor Gillett today commuted the sentence of William Buckley, convicted in San Francisco of murdering George Rice during the labor troubles of 1901 and sentenced to death, to fifteen years' imprisonment This commutation will enable the State board of prison directors to parole Buckley and the Governor to eventually pardon him

The Governor intimated he was now convinced Buckley was innocent of the crime of which he was convicted

In summing up the evidence Governor Gillett makes the following deductions

THINKS HIM INNOCENT

It appears from the affidavits and testimony that the killing of Rice was done by [illegible] and not by Buckley Of the truth of this I am fully satisfied and if it were not for other [illegible] connected with this affray this [illegible] would entitle Buckley to a complete pardon But in view of the fact that Buckley was present at the time of the killing his flight and other circumstances I cannot but feel some [illegible] in the belief that Buckley was in some degree culpable I am therefore constrained to grant a commutation of sentence to such time as will entitle him to immediate parole to the end that I may determine by his conduct outside of the [illegible] whether he is worthy [illegible] pardon

Explorer, Welcomed to New York, Says He Will Submit Further Records to the University of Copenhagen

NEW YORK, Sept. 21—"I shall await events," said Dr Cook to the Associated Press just before he left the docks of the Oscar II at Quarantine today to be brought to the city by the welcoming commitee "When my material has been got together and put into shape it will be submitted in the first instance to the University of Copenhagen. After that it will be laid before the geographical societies of the world.

WILL SUBMIT ALL.

"I will not consent to submit any fragmentary portions of my observations or of my records to anyone The report and all the data connected with my trip must be examined in their entirety, together with my instruments, some of which I have in my possession now, and others of which are on their way to America at the present moment

"These will all be properly controlled and tested before submission to the scientific bodies"

Asked why he did not immediately give full details of his achievement Dr Cook said "I have given to the public a concise account of my journey similar to that always given by explorers on their return from a journey of exploration

For the present no other details are necessary and as a matter of fact no further specific evidence of my claim has been called for from any side It has never been customary hitherto for explorers to make their full records public in such haste As a rule scientific societies are not remarkable for their rapidity in coming to conclusions and they are usually content to wait until complete data are compiled

In regard to the full recognition of his feat by Denmark Dr Cook remarked

MACKINNON TELLS OF MONEY MADE UP FOR DE LANCEY

Thousands of Dollars Were Secured on Notes to Try and Get De Lancey Out of Trouble; George MacKinnon Tells of Sensational Conversations at the Family Home

When Attorney John S. De Lancey appeared before Judge Brown in the criminal department of the Superior Court this morning for arraignment on the four indictments returned against him by the Grand Jury in the [illegible] Arnaud estate District Attorney Donahue released the testimony upon which the true bills are based One indictment alleges the embezzlement of $1000 and the other three deal with falsification of official documents and reports of former Public Administrator George Gray

Attorney Eugene F Treadwell then of counsel for the indicted lawyer [illegible] for the accused man and at his request the court continued all four of the cases to next Tuesday morning when De Lancey will again appear in court and answer to the indictments

TESTIMONY GIVEN OUT

Transcripts of the Grand Jury testimony were delivered to De Lancey in court It deals for the most part with the transactions in the Arnaud matter which led to the indictments while that given by William H MacKinnon and his son George G MacKinnon was devoted almost exclusively to the shortage which existed in John S De Lancey's accounts with the public administrator at the time George Gray was ordered by the Superior Court to turn the funds of his office into the county treasurer and how the elder MacKinnon helped his son-in-law to raise money to make the shortage good George G MacKinnon told the Grand Jury about how De Lancey's accounts were experted and in the course of his examination William H MacKinnon was led to explain where the shortage money came from and his own realty deals in connection with property belonging to certain estates sold by order of Probate Judge Ogden under the direction of De Lancey as the legal representative of the public administrator

GEORGE G MAC KINNON TESTIFIES

Young MacKinnon told of the shortage found in De Lancey's books about eight months ago He testified that one night he went to bed at the home of his father where he was living at 11 30 or 12 o clock When he entered the house he found his father and De Lancey in conference but said nothing to them After he had been in bed about two hours his father came to his room awakened him and told him that De Lancey was short in his accounts and

GRAY ACKNOWLEDGES DEFICIT OF $10,000 IN COOK ESTATE AND MAKES AMOUNT GOOD

Former Public Administrator George Gray made the first move this forenoon to make good the [illegible] to the public when he [illegible] two weeks ago that no estate [illegible] had been looted while it was in his official control would suffer financial loss by reason of the dishonesty of his assistants and his own negligence

This step is in connection with the estate of the late George [illegible] Cook for the [illegible] embezzlement of $10,000 from which Attorney John S De Lancey is now under Grand Jury indictment About 11 30 o'clock this morning Gray filed with the county clerk a supplementary inventory of the estate in which he states correctly the amount of money belonging to the [illegible] which has come into his hands as public administrator as follows

German Savings & Loan Society	$13 [illegible]
Oakland Bank of Savings	1 533 05
	$12 31[illegible]

By this inventory Gray admits the [illegible] 000 shortage and makes restitution of that amount to the estate He has also notified the district attorney that he has made good the shortage out of his private funds.

This Phase of the Case Will Probably Continue For Two Days

Rudolph Spreckels one of the executors of the will and his counsel Attorneys Cushing & Cushing were present in the court room and a small gathering of those interested was on hand

The arguments in the matter are expected to consume a couple of days

Millionaire Friends Seek In Vain to Prevent Separation

NEW YORK, Sept 21—William K Vanderbilt, Jr, donor of the Vanderbilt cup for automobile racers, and his wife, formerly Miss Virginia Fair of San Francisco, have signed a separation agreement, according to an afternoon newspaper. Mrs. Vanderbilt is now returning from Europe with her two children, Muriel and William K. Vanderbilt III. It is expected the separation will be announced formally as soon as Mrs. Vanderbilt reaches New York. Efforts were made by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont mother of Mr Vanderbilt, and Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, sister of Mrs. Vanderbilt, to avert the separation.

That the disagreement between the Willie K Vanderbilts would finally culminate in either a divorce or separation was among the anticipations of those who knew of the strained relations that existed between the two They have been living apart for over a year and although the powerful interests and influence of the husband's family has been at work to bring about a reconciliation between the two it has been ineffectual

An Explanation in Justice

In THE TRIBUNE of September 17th there appeared an article which unjustly reflected on Messrs McLaren Goode & Co certified public accountants of San Francisco It was stated that the firm who were employed to examine the books of the county had neglected to do their duty by overlooking the office of the public administrator and were hence morally responsible for the wholesale looting of the estates by the late employees of that office We find that we were mistaken as to the nature of Messrs McLaren, Goode & Co s employment by the Bendel Grand Jury, and desire to express to them our regret that the article in question was published.

DR. COOK DOUBTS PEARY REPORTS

Sure of Eskimos, Does Not Think Rival Made Remarks Attributed to Him

North Greenland after hearing Rasmussen and talking with Governor Kraul of Upernavik who has seen and read the entire record telegraphed to the Danish government in Copenhagen his assurance of the truth of my declaration and guaranteeing them as authentic.

"The Danish authorities in Greenland who are in reality the advisers of the Danish government have been for nearly four months in possession of all details of my trip.

STAND BY COOK

"The Danish government and the University of Copenhagen as well as the Danish Geographical Society have in their report taken over the virtual guarantee to the sincerity and authenticity of my records. They have stood up for them so to speak before the world. They don't ask me for any further proofs or evidence of any kind but in justice to Denmark it is my intention to place the first completed record of my polar journey at the disposal of the University of Copenhagen.

SURE OF ESKIMOS

Referring to Commander Peary, Dr. Cook said: "I have as yet heard nothing but vague report. I prefer for the present to believe that the statements which have been attributed to Peary are in correct.

"I am fully prepared to meet any charges but I must first see something definite. I am absolutely certain none of the reports that have appeared in print emanate either from my Eskimos Ahwelap and Etukishuk or from Harry Whitney. Mr. Whitney has without any doubt kept his promise to me not to say anything about the expedition and its results and I feel sure of my Eskimos.

"Whitney will return to America about the middle of October. He has complete knowledge of all the facts. He is at entire liberty to make public all he knows. He is neither bound to stand up for me nor for Peary.

COMPANIONS WILL COME

In connection with the proposition that Ahwelap and Etukishuk should be brought to America, Dr. Cook said:

The arrival in America of the Eskimos who went with me to the Pole depends entirely upon the possibility of obtaining a vessel to bring them this year. Every effort has been made to obtain one and if at all possible they will be in New York this year. That they will come is certain, and I intend to give them a year in America. They will be open to any kind of examination and will be ready to reply to any questions.

INVITES RASMUSSEN

Knute Rasmussen also will be requested to come over to New York as soon as he lands in Denmark.

On the question of his plans, Dr. Cook said:

I intend to stay in New York for the present. While there I shall complete my work. I have not made any arrangements for lectures and I have not yet decided whether I shall deliver any addresses before my work is done. I should not however like to commit myself on that point although my present intention is not to do so.

FURTHER EXPORATIONS

"As to further explorations much will depend on Mrs. Cook. I shall however probably not go again to the North Pole, although I may proceed on a northern expedition for the exploration of the new land we saw on our journey. That is a task which must be carried out. Whether I shall once take it or not will be a question for future consideration. It has been suggested that I go to the South Pole, but I am content to leave that to Shackleton and Scott."

MAKES CORRECTIONS

Dr. Cook requested the Associated Press to correct several errors which inadvertently crept into the first report of his discovery.

All my thermometical observations he said "are in Fahrenheit and not centigrade as printed. The observation on March 31 gave our position as latitude 84.47, longitude 96.30. The first corrected altitude of the sun on April 21st gave 89 degrees 59 minutes 45 seconds, and we then covered the remaining 15 seconds and made further observations."

Dr. Cook is to stay at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel.

He has decided that on account of the overwhelming demand for autographs and autographic photographs he will make a uniform charge of $10 each and he will set aside all the proceeds to be divided equally between the explorer and the Arctic Clubs to be utilized for future explorations.

The Oscar II lay at anchor off Fire Island until shortly after midnight when she weighed anchor and proceeded to quarantine. There the steamer anchored to await the inspection of the health officers at 6 o'clock. Meantime several tugs loaded with passengers hung about the liner.

PREPARE FOR RECEPTION

At sunrise the steamer was dressed with flags and preparations are made to receive the explorer's wife and children who were coming down in a tug and to meet a reception committee of city officials and friends of Dr. Cook who went down the harbor in the steamer Grand Republic.

Dr. Cook was standing amid a group of passengers on the saloon deck when the health officer boarded the ship.

The explorer's face was tinged with a healthy bronze and his demeanor was modest. He answered questions freely but declined to discuss the attitude of Commander Peary.

"Have you your notes and data with you?" he was asked.

"Yes."

WHITNEY HAS INSTRUMENTS

"Then what matter does Mr. Whitney hold?"

"Mr. Whitney has my instruments and some delicate data. Mr. Whitney is a noble gentleman and can be trusted to speak the truth."

When asked about the controversy over the discovery of the Pole Dr. Cook said:

"I have deplored the whole controversy and feel that nothing should be said. I shall leave the public to judge. I feel that the Danish people who have accepted my report without question and treated me so liberally should be the first to receive the evidences of my work."

WANTS TO SEE WIFE

"I want to see my wife and family, who I understand will come to us first in a revenue tug, then I don't care what comes."

Dr. Cook said that during the four months of his stay in Greenland he went over all his notes and data and completed his book describing his trip to the Pole.

After passing the health officers' inspection the Oscar II started up the harbor but stopped off Tompkinsville where the Grand Republic met the liner and Dr. Cook was transferred to the Harbor steamer to receive his official welcome.

COOK'S STATEMENT

Dr. Cook gave out the following signed statement:

On Board the Oscar II.—After one of the most delightful trips of my life across the Atlantic I am indeed glad once more to see the shores of my native land. I have come from the North Pole. I have brought my story and my data with me. The public has already a tangible record of that trip. In a short time the narrative with all its observations will be published and placed before the world for examination.

"It is as essential to you as for me to understand where I cannot on the impulse of the moment read off a manuscript which covers the work of two years. As I said upon several occasions, all the charges, accusations and expressions of disbelief are based upon entire ignorance of the supplementary data which I possess.

ANENT HIS CRITICS.

"No one who has spoken or written on the subject in opposition to my claim knows of the facts with which such work of exploration is measured. All of the criticisms have been based upon obvious errors in the reproduction of my first dispatch or upon the difference of petty side issues presented by unfair critics.

"I am perfectly willing to abide by the final verdict of competent judges. That must be the last word in the discussion and that alone can satisfy me and the public.

"Furthermore not only will my report be before you in black and white, but I also will bring to America human witnesses to prove that I have been to the Pole.

(Signed) "FREDERICK COOK."

GREETED BY WIFE

The scene as Dr. Cook was welcomed by his family and friends was one long to be remembered. From 5 o'clock this morning the explorer intermittently paced the saloon deck, placing his marine glasses to his eyes and watching every tug or revenue vessel which approached to see whether he could observe his wife on the deck of the craft. At one moment he thought he saw his wife on a small tug. He raised his hat and waved it.

TUG SIGHTED

At last the right tug was dimly outlined through the mist and Dr. Cook, springing to the companionway, leaped across the intervening stretch of water to the tug and dashed up to the hurricane deck where his wife was waiting for him waving the stars and stripes. The returned explorer took her in his arms without a word passing between them. Dr. Cook broke the silence.

"Where are the children?" he asked.

His wife did not reply but led him to the children a few steps away. He kissed his eldest daughter then seized the younger one in his arms and raised her to his shoulders. At this the spectators broke into cheers.

"Bravo! Bravo Cook." "Welcome home." "We're proud of you," rang out across the water.

Then the words "For he's a jolly good fellow" were sung in chorus by Dr. Cook's fellow passengers on the Oscar II as the tug left the ship's side.

TRANSFERRED TO TUG

The Oscar II immediately weighed anchor and continued up the river to her dock and Dr. Cook was transferred to the Grand Republic which was lying a quarter of a mile away. Cinagraphs and cameras were turned on him from every point as he went on board and passed through a guard of honor of the Forty-seventh Regiment to receive the greeting of the reception committee. On board the Republic Dr. Cook was greeted by the official reception committee and a wreath of roses was placed about his neck. Standing on the upper deck of the steamer Dr. Cook addressed the committee and his friends briefly.

The trip was a triumphal one.

The Grand Republic was greeted with the shrill shrieks of hundreds of craft small and large. Dr. Cook stood on the upper deck.

The steamer after reaching the foot of West Thirtieth street went up the North River as far as Spuyten Duyvil and then doubled its course and proceeded up the East River to the foot of South Fifth street in Brooklyn where Dr. Cook landed.

KYTKA CONFESSES TO HIS ERRORS

Expert Chirographist Says He Testified Where He Was Wrong

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Theodore Kytka, the handwriting expert, was recalled in the Tomalty case for re-cross-examination at this morning's session. He was asked by the defendant if it were not a fact that in a pawnbroker's case he had testified that the prisoner's handwriting was on certain incriminating documents, and had later admitted that he was wrong and had given the defendant $6. The expert replied that such was the case and that he had only been given the exemplar of the writing and that when from the prisoner himself he obtained other copies he had of his own volition notified the court that he had been wrong and that he had later given the man $6 to help buy a railroad ticket.

Kytka's testimony was unshaken by his examination and he was followed by H. R. Roberts, an expert, who gave evidence regarding shortages in the treasurer's office. The prosecution hopes to conclude their case today.

PORTUGUESE ORDER SUCCEEDS IN COURT

Superior Judge J. Q. White of Mendocino county has denied a writ of mandate in a case that has been bitterly fought between the S. P. R. S. I. and the I. P. P. E. C., a rival Portuguese organization. The decision means a victory for the first society inasmuch as it upholds its action in expelling from membership a member who had joined the U. P. P. E. C. in violation of a rule against such affiliation.

The suit was brought in Ukiah by Maria Neto, who was a member of Consella No. 44, S. P. R. S. I., and joined the rival order. Judge White held that the S. P. R. S. I. had the right to make its own rules in this regard and refused to issue an order to its officers to reinstate Maria Neto.

Attorney Asa Mendenhall of this city made the fight for the supreme council of S. P. R. S. I. The supreme officers of both societies were in attendance at the trial, which was strenuously contested for several days.

PLAYS HIS FUNERAL MARCH TILL DEATH STILLS HAND ON BOW

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—While illuminating gas slowly asphyxiated him, Salvatore Carrano, a violinist, 50 years old, yesterday calmly played Chopin's funeral march, until overcome by the poisonous fumes, he died. He had broken the gas fixtures in order to commit suicide.

His violin was heard by other roomers in the house, and soon after the strains ceased the smell of gas caused an investigation. When Salvatore Vicello, a brother musician broke into the room he found Cerrano dead, sitting in a chair. Cerrano's lifeless left hand still held the violin, while the right was locked to the bow, with which he had caressed the strings of the instrument until life was extinct.

wife was given about $8,000,000 at the time of her separation from the Bonanza king.

The two sons, James G. Jr., and Charles L. Fair, went with the father. The former died in San Francisco and the latter was killed with his wife, in an automobile accident in France. Despite their separation the Senator had the greatest respect and affection for his wife. This trait was made a strong factor in his defense to the suit brought against his estate by Mrs. Nettie Craven, a San Francisco school teacher, who laid claim to being the wife of the bonanza king under a contract and common law marriage. Her suit fell through, however.

WERE GREAT CATCHES

The Fair girls were educated at the exclusive convent of the Ladies of the Sacred Heart in San Francisco and afterwards sent to Paris for finishing.

Their personal appearance and the great wealth that was to be theirs made them among the great catches of American society. When Tessie married into the exclusive Oelrichs family she was considered to have made a great match so far as society went, but Oelrichs himself was comparatively a poor man. It was not a happy union and though no open rupture occurred Oelrichs spent most of his time in California looking after his wife's vast interests while she remained in New York.

The marriage of "Birdie" Fair to young Vanderbilt which was rated as one of the matrimonial alliances of the decade, was brought about it is said, through the offices of Mrs. Oelrichs.

WAS LOVE MATCH.

It was considered to be a "real love" match as the Vanderbilts were supplied with millions far above the need for making quest for those left by the bonanza king. It is estimated that the Fair daughters are worth between them from thirty to forty millions.

They are joint owners of the Fairmont and their real roll of San Francisco holdings is long and runs into large figures.

Newspaper for Kidney and Rheumatic Sufferers

In Germany there is a newspaper published in the interests of all rheumatic sufferers and each week symptoms and treatments are discussed by both laity and medical men. One scientific contributor related that a formula originated especially to relieve kidney diseases had almost phenomenal virtue in the treatment of all forms of rheumatism.

No secret is made of this formula, which is composed of one half ounce fluid extract Buchu, one ounce compound fluid Balmwort and two ounces compound syrup Sarsaparilla, mixed in a bottle and to be taken in teaspoonful doses after each meal and one at retiring.

A local druggist expressed the opinion that every rheumatic and kidney sufferer will be grateful for this item.

WILLIAM H. MACKINNON TELLS OF REALTY DEALS

Makes Statement to the Grand Jury Regarding His Various Real Estate Transactions.

that it would be [illegible] for somebody to raise [illegible] make [illegible] good.

MacKinnon advised his father to sleep over the matter.

The next morning young MacKinnon said his father went to his office and said "George I don't know what to do. This man De Lancey is nothing to me. For the girl's sake—his wife's sake—I ought to do something. Before I do anything I want a statement taken off De Lancey's books. Will you go down and take a statement off?"

Young MacKinnon said [illegible] he was so unfriendly with De Lancey that he would not go to the public administrator's office and expert the books so William H. MacKinnon made arrangements to have the books brought to him at the office of County Clerk John P. Cook at the Hall of Records. This was soon after Superior Judge Brown had rendered his decision holding that all moneys of estates in the public administrator's hands should be deposited with the county treasurer.

DESTROYED REPORT

Witness said that he began the work and that County Clerk Cook was present during the first part of the experting. MacKinnon destroyed the record of what he found about six months ago because De Lancey thought he was going about utilizing it to talk against him. MacKinnon said that to the best of his recollection the shortage shown by the books amounted to about $52,000. This did not include several estates in which he did not strike balances. He declared that he omitted these estates at the request of County Clerk Cook—Mr. Cook's words according to the witness being "Those estates are all right. You don't have to bother with them." He said that he told his father of the estates that had been eliminated at Cook's request. W. H. MacKinnon made no comment the witness said on receiving the report.

DE LANCEY CONFESSES

George G. MacKinnon said that his examination did not prove to him who was responsible for the shortage, but that his father said De Lancey had confessed and had said that the money would have to be gotten together in a very few days because it would have to be deposited with the county treasurer.

Asked what was said about this shortage young MacKinnon said:

"He (my father) told me there was a shortage. I don't remember him telling me any amount. In fact, I don't think he would have taken De Lancey's word if he did tell him the amount. That was his object in having me go over the public administrator's books. I should judge that the statement De Lancey gave to him about corresponded with the statement that I rendered."

Q.—Yes. That was about how much? A.—That would be fifty-two thousand and some odd dollars.

Q.—In other words if your conclusion is that matter is right De Lancey was short $52,000? A.—I should judge he was.

DE LANCEY'S SHORTAGE

Q.—Is it not a fact that in a conversation about four months ago when the matter was put squarely to you, you did state that your father put up between $30,000 and $52,000 to square the shortage of John S. De Lancey? A.—No. I don't remember saying that. Of course, this man De Lancey may have had $52,000 in the bank and not create a shortage or he may not have had a cent. I may have made the remark that my dad was the man that got the shortage together whatever it may have been. I always figured it was between $30,000 and $52,000.

Q.—Did you have any conversation with your father as to in what form he put the money up for De Lancey? A.—No. I never had any conversation but he told me at one time—no, Mr. Carlston told me I think Mr. Mosh [illegible] of the Central Bank that he [illegible] Mr. De Lancey's [illegible] were in their bank and I believe my father wrote a $10,000 [illegible] note that De Lancey signed.

SYPOLT ESTATE

Regarding the Catherine F. Sypolt estate young MacKinnon said:

"I think it was the night before my father left for the East. I came into the dining room and De Lancey was talking to my father in the sitting room with [illegible] from the dining room. It was [illegible] some business transactions which De Lancey would like to [illegible] him. I know it was [illegible] I heard the [illegible] bank. I should judge that it was the [illegible] estate [illegible]."

Q.—Do you remember De Lancey saying to your father to go East. He could buy that estate for $15,000 or less and they would clean up some money? A.—No. I don't remember that.

[illegible]

W. H. MACKINNON'S TESTIMONY

William H. MacKinnon [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] dorsed this note. This [illegible] $25,000 which so far as [illegible] shows is all that was [illegible] De Lancey's friends to cover his shortage.

George G. MacKinnon had already [illegible] the grand jury that [illegible] the books [illegible] for [illegible] $ [illegible] and $ [illegible]

MacKinnon Sr. said that De Lancey and he had been at outs up to last October. Prior to that time he said, De Lancey would only come up and speak to him occasionally. "I would answer," said witness, "that would be all. Three or four times he might have come up and spoken to me on the street about what a good chance he had, how wise he could put me, how much I could make."

Q.—You didn't need that information did you—how to make money? A.—Oh, I don't know. I am always apt to get educated.

Their first discussion of financial affairs in the public administrator's office was around last January, MacKinnon testified, when De Lancey went to him and told him that he (De Lancey) had bought the Lohide estate in Eureka but still owed something on it. This estate was worth over $100,000. MacKinnon did not tell the jury just why De Lancey went to him, but the upshot of the conversation was that MacKinnon took a one quarter interest in the estate and finally bought all of De Lancey's share.

"I had a feeling," said MacKinnon, "that De Lancey needed money and was putting it in this estate."

DE LANCEY NEEDS MONEY

Some time after this De Lancey again approached witness for money. "He came to me and told me that he needed money the worst way, he had to have it," testified MacKinnon. "I says 'Great Scott, that Lohide estate that was valued at one hundred and some odd thousand dollars that was turned over to me—I thought that fixed you all up.' He said, 'I have got to have money.' I said, 'Well, now, you can't get any money out of me.' He felt awfully sore and he went away."

This occurred early last March.

There were several discussions between MacKinnon and De Lancey concerning the latter's need for money, MacKinnon testifying that De Lancey refused to answer when charged with being responsible for the shortage in his office. Nevertheless MacKinnon took steps to secure the money needed. He told the jury of a conference he had with W. F. Dargie at which he said Dargie prevented him from notifying George Gray of the state of affairs.

MAY LOSE HIS JOB

"Why will you do that?" MacKinnon testified Dargie said. "De Lancey may lose his job. Why, I will get in and dig up $8000 or $5000."

There was considerable time spent to prevent the banks from which the loans were secured from discovering the purpose to which the money was to be put according to MacKinnon's story.

Dargie, County Clerk Cook, William H. MacKinnon and John De Lancey, father of De Lancey, had several conferences. MacKinnon in putting up the $10,000 as he assumed as his share made the note out to his daughter, De Lancey's wife. This note was exhibited to the grand jury and shows three monthly payments of interest totalling $150.

MAC KINNON'S DENIAL

MacKinnon denied that through all these proceedings he knew that the money was for De Lancey's shortage, putting it thus:

"Whether he used it, whether he had it, what he was paying it back to Gray for, I did not know what he did with it, whether he was buying another Lohide estate or not."

Q.—You did know that he needed this money to straighten out with the public administrator? A.—Yes. And he did not tell me that I was saying something that was not so when I accused him of being short.

Q.—Since the first indictment in this matter has John S. De Lancey had any conversation with you about his answer in the public administrator's office? A.—No, sir, no more than I asked him about the $10,000, then talk about it. He said that he [illegible] he was going to get some sort of settlement with Gray, that Gray was owing him money, that Gray had $4000 or $4,000 in some bank that he could have.

Q.—Didn't you say that he (De Lancey) said "There is nothing in this indictment for this $10,000. I have got the money." A.—That is about the size of it.

This is the $10,000 shortage in the [illegible] Cook estate in connection with which there are four indictments against De Lancey.

KEEP ON INDICTING

Money for attorney fees was demanded by Mrs. De Lancey of her father. "I said," testified MacKinnon, "'If the grand jury keeps on heaping these indictments on you it will be $10,000 on each indictment. Judging from the first indictment that I have read the testimony on, they can keep on indicting you the rest of your life' (meaning to Mrs. De Lancey her husband)."

MacKinnon admitted to the jury of buying the Pi[illegible] property of the [illegible] Flores [illegible] estate for a little over $ [illegible] [illegible] now asks $ [illegible] for the same [illegible].

[illegible] testimony regarding the Fresno property [illegible] the [illegible] estate [illegible] appraisement of $ [illegible] visit to Fresno [illegible] and MacKinnon was related to [illegible] MacKinnon got this property for [illegible]

[illegible] there was enough of securities to pay all of the note. De Lancey told him that the note [illegible] paid and that he (De Lancey) [illegible] down part of the security.

J. T. Moran, Oakland's Pioneer Merchant, Returns Home After Extended Trip Through Eastern Cities

MR. AND MRS. J. T. MORAN.

J. T. Moran has just returned from a trip to New York and other Eastern cities where he went for the purpose of transacting business and at the same time enjoying a little leisure. Mr. Moran is one of Oakland's well known merchants having conducted a clothing store on Broadway for forty one years. He went East to buy the fall goods for his store at the southwest corner of Eleventh and Broadway. Mr. Moran was accompanied on his trip by his wife and they visited their old home in New Haven, Conn., where they were greeted by many friends and relatives.

CONFIDENCE IN OAKLAND

The pioneer merchant was very much pleased to return to Oakland as he has lived in this city for the last forty one years. He has seen Oakland grow and expand and expects to see it prosper until it will rival the great cities of the United States. Mr. Moran in speaking to a TRIBUNE reporter about his trip said:

"The money our city is spending on civic improvements, parks, park boulevards, etc., is a good investment and I am pleased to see Mayor Mott going ahead to put bonds before the people for water front improvements and a new city hall.

GUEST OF NEW HAVEN ELKS.

"We had a very enjoyable outing as the guests of the New Haven Elks at a lake at which there were about five hundred men present. Several New Haven Elks called on me in Oakland after the last convention and we renewed acquaintances later in New Haven. They all seem to be very much pleased with Oakland. Conventions of this kind are good advertisements for our State.

"On my return I stopped in Chicago and was the guest of an old friend, Tip O'Neil, president of the Western Baseball League, who took Mrs. Moran and myself on a trip of thirty two miles down Michigan and Jackson boulevards. It was a perfect autumn day and being the day of the reception to President Taft the sight of men, women and children lining the boulevard was simply grand.

MATHEWSON GREATEST PITCHER

"We also took in the baseball game, where President Taft greeted the players of the Chicago and New York clubs. Since witnessing that game I think Mathewson is the greatest pitcher I ever saw. I had a chance to watch the work of Harry Krause, the former St. Mary's college boy, while at Philadelphia. He is pitching great ball for the Athletics.

"The tariff question now being settled, the country looks bright and prosperous, and business should be in a good condition.

"Although both Mrs. Moran and myself had a most pleasant trip, we were both glad to get back to our home in Oakland, the city which holds many pleasant memories for both.

LEAGUE OF CROSS CADETS

"While in New York I had the pleasure of meeting John J. Sheehan, John Kearney and George Ahern of the League of Cross Cadets from Rev. Father Dempsey's parish in that city. The boys were formerly connected with the Ye Liberty Theater here, and have made good in the theatrical profession. They have all secured places on Eastern circuits."

AN APPEAL FOR FUNDS FOR RECEPTION OF PRESIDENT

Taft Committee Will Give the Chief Executive an Exceptionally Good Time During Visit Here.

An elaborate reception is to be tendered President Taft when he arrives in Oakland. This was decided upon by the finance committee of the organization having the details of the forthcoming affair in charge.

It is estimated that between $3700 and $4000 will be required to meet the expenditures of the reception and to raise this an appeal is made to the public to contribute.

The members of the committee, twenty seven of them, all told, led the subscription list by unanimously agreeing to contribute $[illegible] each toward the fund, making in all $[illegible]75. Colonel Theo. Gier, chairman of the finance committee, [illegible] the call for prompt generosity [illegible] in aiding the committee in its patriotic efforts to [illegible] the chief magistrate of the Republic.

"We do not have Presidential visits very frequently," said Colonel Gier, "and I hope those who can afford to do so will send in their contributions without waiting for the committeemen to call upon them.

"We have a good deal to do and the event is of such patriotic importance that it appeals to everyone to aid to the extent of their means. Let the business men, capitalists and property owners [illegible] help in this matter."

Remittances should be made to Theodore Gier, finance committee of the Taft Reception Committee, over Union National Bank, Twelfth and Broadway.

The names of subscribers will be published in the columns of THE TRIBUNE each day.

8 PANELS AND 4 VASES FOR NEW SATHER GATE

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—It was decided last Wednesday by the Board of Regents of the University to make the floor of the Sather Memorial Gate of asphalt to conform with the street work recently done on Telegraph avenue.

The sculpturing for the Sather gate will embrace eight panels and four vases of marble. The panels will each contain a single human figure symbolical of one of the great professions for which the university trains. The female figures will represent architecture, art, electricity and agriculture; the male ones law, mining, letters and medicine. The vases will be six feet high, richly sculptured, representing the four ages of life—childhood, youth, manhood and old age.

HER SPOUSE SHIED AT HONEST EFFORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Superior Judge Graham granted a separation this morning to Felice Bauchou from John Peter Bauchou on the ground of failure to provide.

"He never did a stroke of work, Judge," said Mrs. Bauchou. "He said he didn't believe in work and that there was nothing in work. But just as soon as I left him he went to work, all right."

CONSTABLE CHASES A BRACE OF SUSPECTS

FRUITVALE, September 21.—Constable Dave Sheehan gave chase last night to two suspicious looking characters who were seen loitering about the residence of Malcom Smith on Bray avenue. Sheehan suspicious that the men might in some way be connected with the recent burglaries committed in this district, ordered the men to halt. They took to their heels and ran toward the railway track and were lost to the officer before he could fire on them.

Constable S. Allen and Sheehan are making a determined effort to rid the vicinity of any suspicious looking characters and have gone so far as to order a number of loafers out of town. Judge William Geary is backing the officers in their efforts and promise a jail sentence to any dissolute character brought before him by the officer.

FRANCHISE GOES OVER ONCE MORE

Southern Pacific Secures Further Delay in Franklin Street Petition

The petition of the Southern Pacific Company for a franchise to run its lines on Franklin street north to Twenty-first street went over for one week last night at a meeting of the city council at the request of Attorney John J. Allen, representing the railroad company.

As a consequence City Attorney John W. Stetson did not file his opinion relative to whether or not the city council had acquired jurisdiction in the matter. The situation is this: On the original petition the property owners represented was more than the necessary two thirds. A subsequent protest filed against granting the franchise, however, resulted in a sufficient number of the original signers withdrawing from the petition leaving the Southern Pacific's application short of the required two-thirds. The city attorney was called on to determine whether or not the city council had acquired jurisdiction in the first instance or had lost it in the second.

RUMORED DECISION.

According to the gossip current among the councilmen last night the City Attorney has decided adversely to the claim of the Southern Pacific. It was for this reason that the matter was continued a week.

Attorney Allen admits that the law department of the Southern Pacific Company in San Francisco wishes further time to look up additional points of law. This seems to confirm the opinion that Stetson has decided for the protestants and against the Southern Pacific.

Stetson says it would not be proper at this time for him to state what his opinion is until all matters which may possibly arise are settled.

SECRETARY CURRY IS AGAINST "JOY" RIDES

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 21. — As a result of the notoriety she obtained by being injured in a "joy ride" last week, Miss Pearl Palm, a pretty telephone operator at the Capitol, was asked to resign yesterday by Secretary of State Curry, custodian of the building. Curry told the young woman that in view of the scandal attached to the accident, he must make the change as an example to other young women of the State.

Other members of the party told of a gay night along the county roads between here and Roseville, but Miss Palm denies the tale of orgies on the night of the wild ride, when seven others were thrown from the automobile into a ditch.

For indigestion and all stomach trouble take Foley's Orino Laxative, as it stimulates the stomach and liver and regulates the bowels and will positively cure habitual constipation. Sold at Wishart's drug store, corner Tenth and Washington streets.

INSURGENTS ARE RAMPANT IN IOWA

Cold Storage Reception is Given to President at Des Moines

DES MOINES, Sept. 21.—Iowa politicians are sounding the slogan of dissension and dissatisfaction with tariff revision.

Albert B. Cummins, junior Senator from the State, is at the head of the insurgents and looms up prominently into view as a formidable candidate for the presidency, the apostle and the leader of the revisionists who favor the downward cut.

This is the talk that is heard here following the visit here yesterday of President Taft and inspired by Senator Cummins that he will continue to wage the fight for low tariff, no matter how often the President may read him out of the party.

ALSO AN INSURGENT.

United States Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver also joined Cummins in declaring he would remain an insurgent as long as the making of tariffs was controlled by the trusts.

"I am going to continue the fight, and I have nothing to take back," said Cummins.

"In my opinion the fight has but just begun for the fight of the people against the robbery by tariff fattened corporations."

The visit of the President to the State capitol today was the feature of a trip across Iowa that one distinguished Iowa public man characterized as "a polar dash" of conspicuous daring. There was no mistaking the fact that Iowa has a state-wide grouch on the tariff revision proposition, and finds it hard to warm up to any one who thinks well of the Aldrich-Payne law.

Apparently the Iowans, since Taft's Winona speech, make no exception, even to the President, for they received him with only formal and decorous applause. The chilly temperature was felt perceptibly by the members of the President's party.

The President addressed a gathering of [illegible] persons massed in the street and on the terraces along the side of the capitol.

For the most part he discussed the regulation of railroads and railroad rates, and the proposed revision of the Sherman anti-trust law.

SANGUINARY LUNATIC PURSUES A WOMAN

Mrs. A. Tobins was attacked yesterday afternoon by a lunatic brandishing a knife, who ran into the yard of her home at Redwoods road and Davis street. The madman was frightened off, however, before doing any damage by the woman's husband, who appeared at the front door of their home. A posse under Deputy Constable Sheehan later set out in an attempt to discover and capture the man, who is thought to have escaped from some insane asylum.

The authorities believe that the lunatic is Henry Rothsow, the Mount Eden youth in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco, a few days ago, and after being taken to the Emergency Hospital turned over to his uncle, J. Hendery, who resides at 117 Telegraph avenue. A few minutes afterward Rothsow escaped and the police started to search for him.

SANTA ROSA TRACK IN GOOD CONDITION

Improvements Have Been Made Which Insure Some Record-Breaking Times at the Santa Rosa Automobile Association's Meet.

By C. E. MOYES.

THE next event of interest to the automobile enthusiasts of this section of the state is the two days' automobile racing carnival to be held Saturday and Sunday, September 25 and 26, in Santa Rosa. Six races are programmed for each day. The track is one of the fastest circular mile tracks in the United States, and as some of the speediest cars on the coast have entered the contest, more records may be added to the track's honor. The Santa Rosa Automobile Association, which is fathering the meet, has expended over $3,000 in increasing the banks on the turns of the track, which will develop greater speed, and lessen the danger for the drivers. Experts have visited the course and pronounce it in perfect condition. The Automobile Club of California and the San Francisco Motor Club have arranged runs to Santa Rosa on Saturday, returning Sunday night. Special accommodations have been made on the ferry boats for transportation of machines across from San Francisco to both Tiburon and Sausalito. A special boat for automobiles will leave the city side for Tiburon on Saturday morning at 8:30 and returning, will leave Tiburon, Sunday evening, at 8:30 o'clock. There will also be hourly and half hourly boat service for Sausalito as well as a number of boats to Tiburon. The most preferable route for the motorist to take is that from Sausalito, as the roads are in better condition that way. In Santa Rosa, the very best hotel accommodations can be secured at a reasonable rate. These accommodations may be reserved by addressing the chairman of the Rooms Committee, Post Office box No. 44, Santa Rosa.

One of the attractions at the state fair now being held at Idora Park is the exhibit of Maxwell cars. Manager A. C. Hull, of the local agency, has spared no time, expense nor trouble, in making a suitable setting for his models. The colors used in decorating the space are red and blue artistically draped and blended, and with the brilliant red, highly polished cars, make a most striking and pleasing picture. Mr. Hull will have some one in attendance morning and afternoon and will himself be on hand every evening to explain the features and tell of the accomplishments of the Maxwell product.

News was received yesterday by W. L. Loos, local agent for the Studebaker cars, that the executive officers of the Studebaker Automobile Company which for the past several years have been located in Cleveland, Ohio, have been transferred to South Bend, Indiana, the home of the big Studebaker factory. The Cleveland office will be retained as the Ohio branch.

It is announced that in order to accommodate the crowds that will go to Oakland for the Portola road race, to be held October 23, it is proposed to get the Southern Pacific to operate ferry boats all the night preceding the race. Fred S. Samuels of the executive committee in an interview stated yesterday that "the transportation of the people to and from the scene of the race will be one of the most important undertakings of the event. We will not only make every preparation to get the people to the course as quickly and conveniently as possible but we will endeavor to get the officials of the railroads to run extra boats and trains. That there will be need for extra boats is a certainty. There are several thousand owners of automobiles in San Francisco alone and practically every one of them will want to make the trip to the course in their own car. Besides these local motorists there will be several hundred other owners from the state visiting the Portola Festival and they will join the crowd going to the race. That the transportation facilities should be adequate is important and will undoubtedly meet with the approval and co-operation of the Southern Pacific.

Three automobile loads of Riverside residents in Studebaker cars have just spent a couple of weeks camping out on the northern slopes of "Old Baldy." The party comprised Claude P. Hancock and family, George P. Marsh and family, Theodore Crossley, Dr. Sleeper, C. A. Dundas, R. J. Lutz and Jack Thompson. The route brought the machines within a short distance of the peak on the northern slope of the mountain, the climb being made by way of Cajon Pass, from which a detour was made to the left, the latter part of the route consisting of little more than a trail. A luggage wagon was sent a day ahead of the motorists.

The country is heavily timbered and is said to be an ideal spot for sport. In the last two weeks fourteen deer have been reported killed in Swardout canyon.

The attempt at climbing the mountain with four passengers in each car in addition to one thousand pounds of luggage, according to automobile men, shows what remarkable things a motor car is capable of doing. The climb and return, involving a distance of ninety-seven miles, was made in nine hours, a record in itself.

Today the second annual good roads congress held in the United States opened at Cleveland, Ohio. Representatives from almost every state in the union are in attendance and questions will be brought up and discussed relative to the road construction and maintenance of every section. There will be tests of road building, dust-allaying materials and other subjects.

WANT BROADWAY TRACKS WIDENED

Traction Company Will Be Asked to Make Change by City Council

GOVERNOR WILL NOT BE AT STATE FAIR TILL FRIDAY

Sacramento Is Coming in Special Train With Band---Old Sonoma to Have Gala Day of Outing.

Governor Gillett will not be able to be present at the Oakland State Fair this evening, but has telegraphed to Manager Bernard P. Miller that he will attend Friday night, when a special program will be presented.

Preparations are being made to receive the Sacramento delegation, who claim Thursday as the day for the Capitolians at the Oakland State Fair.

They have telegraphed, "We are coming with a brass band on a special train."

That is the way they have of doing things up there, and it is expected that fully one thousand will be in the party.

Wednesday of next week has been set apart for "Old Sonoma." The county has one of the most attractive displays at the Fair. It is as varied as any that can be offered by any section of kaleidiscopic California.

A WORLD IN ITSELF.

Sonoma lays claim to be a world in itself, and the people proudly boast they can raise anything under the sun, and have about every variety of metal stored away in their hills.

Sonoma is the home of Luther Burbank, the alchemist of the horticultural and vegetable kingdoms. His places near Sebastopol and at Santa Rosa are in the world's eye.

The Healdsburg and Sonoma districts are famous for mines; Cloverdale for its oranges and hops; Petaluma for poultry, and Guerneville is still on the map as a great redwood lumber section and also the home of the Bohemian jinks.

Santa Rosa, Petaluma and Healdsburg are the great cities of the county. They are progressive, modern and wealthy. In fact, Sonoma is one of the wealthiest and most prosperous counties of this State. It raises everything, including mortgages, and the crop of the latter is very small, smaller than anywhere else in the west.

CROPS NEVER FAIL.

Hard times, panics, or tariffs do not bother men up there. They are too busy to think of such things, and on Sonoma's standard it is written: "Our crops never fail."

Harvests follow sowing in regular rythm and rain is plenty, never too much, and that is why "Old Sonoma" is always prosperous and its people never kick. Not all counties are like Sonoma. It wouldn't do. The State would soon contain all the visible gold supply, bonds, paper money and everything else the world has to offer for security.

INCREASE OF VISITORS.

The throngs that attend the Fair increase in number with the passing of the days.

That it is well patronized means much to Oakland. It means that the State Exposition will be held here every year and be of ever-increasing importance.

This year's attendance will determine whether or not it is to become a permanent feature of this side of the bay, and, if so, plans will be laid that the event of next year will eclipse any State Fair ever held in the West.

The attractions offering fill the measure of exchange for the price of admission.

Music, bullfight, displays and the score of other features make up a program of amusement and educational interest that far excells and exceeds the offerings of any part on the American continent.

NON-UNION CAR MEN TAKE STRIKERS' PLACES

OMAHA, Sept. 21.—The third day of the strike of the conductors and motormen employed by the Omaha and Council Bluffs Street Railway Company, opened with no indications of violence. Two hundred non-union conductors and motormen arrived from Chicago yesterday but only a few of them were put to work.

WHOOPING COUGH SETS CAMP BARKING

SANTA ROSA, Sept. 21. — The whooping cough germ has laid old men and old women, young men and maidens low in the Rock Pile Creek river section in this county and Mendocino county. One big tan-bark camp had to suspend work, where there are eighty men, stout, hardy fellows, employed in stripping bark from the trees in the forest.

"Women seventy years old having the whooping cough as bad as anybody," says H. A. Morrill, a lumber man who is himself seeking a cure.

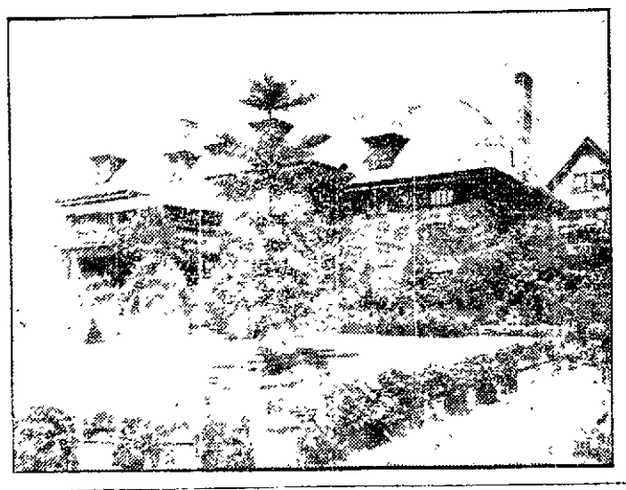
ANNOUNCEMENTS ANNOUNCEMENTS

SAYS SLEEPING PORCHES CAN BE BUILT OF CANVAS ON ALMOST ANY HOUSE



The Home of Wickham Havens, upon which has been built a very successful Sleeping Porch by T. Dahl & Co.

EXPERT DESIGNER OF MODERN SLEEPING PORCHES CLAIMS ALL HANDICAPS CAN BE OVERCOME---PHYSICIANS RECOGNIZING HIS SPLENDED WORK---ARCHITECTS AND BUILDERS CALLING HIM INTO CONFERENCE TO SOLVE PROBLEMS OF DRAFT AND VENTILATION

Thoms, the awning-man, has leaped into fame by the splendid results he has obtained in the equipment of sleeping porches for scores of Alameda county's most attractive homes.

The sleeping porch habit is more than a craze, for it is founded upon an idea that means good health for all those who try it, and Thoms popularity is but in its infancy, for he seems to be the only man in the county who has made a study of this specialty.

"I put up 35 sleeping porches last week," said Thoms today, "and orders are coming in right along. Most of my orders come from people whom doctors recommended me to. The physicians are certainly my friends, because when they suggest to their patients that they come to me for sleeping porches they are throwing business right out of their own hands. Nobody with a sleeping porch needs a doctor."

The most interesting apparatus that Thoms makes is an indoor sleeping funnel, so arranged that the sleeper remains inside the room, next to a window, through which is extended a canvas funnel running from the face of the sleeper to the open air outside the window.

The night air is caught by a patented attachment and poured through the window over the bed of the sleeper.

The advantage of such an arrangement lies in the fact that the air can be thoroughly filtered of dust, dirt and insects before it reaches the sleeper, and at the same time be kept fresh and bracing.

There has been a demand for something of this kind ever since people have been brought to realize the advantages of sleeping out of doors.

"I have seen Thoms' appliance," said a prominent physician to a representative of THE TRIBUNE today, "and it is thoroughly practical. A great many people who are now living in hotels and even private homes have no way of sleeping out—they are afraid to sleep next to an open window for a fear of drafts, and unless they take advantage of some such attachment as this must continue to suffer the ills which could be cured by sleeping out of doors. Furthermore," he continued, "I think it's dangerous to sleep out of doors unprotected, for most of us sleep with our mouths open and take into our lungs all sorts of dirt and disease germs during the night. By Thoms' device the air is filtered through several thicknesses of netting which lessens this danger to a great degree. I really think it a splendid idea and am going to suggest it to several of my patients."

There is no question but that sleeping out of doors is becoming quite popular, and in fact, developing into much more than a fad. Those who are so fortunate as to have the space are erecting tents upon sleeping porches, but those who have no such opportunities can secure one of these bed-room tents by telephoning to Mr. Thoms, care of T. Dahl & Co., Oakland 3521. They only cost a few dollars and are worth more than that in the saving of doctors' bills alone, to say nothing of the enjoyment you'd get out of the good health that would come as a consequence of their use.

LADIES AS GUESTS AT CHURCH DINNER

At the regular dinner to be held under the auspices of the Men's League of the Congregational Church tonight in the parlors of the church, the ladies will be the guests of honor. About 220 invitations have been issued for the affair, which will be one of the most interesting events in the social calendar of the organization. C. E. Keyes, principal of the Oakland high school and president of the Men's League, will preside. Dr. Albert B. Shields, superintendent of St. Luke's Hospital of San Francisco, will be the speaker of the evening. His subject will be "Some Principles and Practices of the Emanuel Movement." During the evening Henry L. Perry will sing.

LABOR DIGNITARIES VISITING OAKLAND

T. D. O'Conner, international president of the Longshoremen's union from Buffalo, N. Y., and James D. Leach, organizer of the American Knights of Labor, were guests today of R. M. Hamb of the local Building Trades Council of this city.

O'Conner and Leach are visiting the Coast in the interest of the reaffiliation of the longshoremen of the Pacific Coast with the international organization, with which they severed relations some two years ago on the occasion of the longshoremen's strike. The San Francisco union has already voted to affiliate and a special meeting of the Oakland organization has been called for the purpose of deciding the question. O'Conner and Leach will visit all the cities of the Coast in furthering their object.

WATER COMMITTEE BEGINS INVESTIGATIONS TONIGHT

Ratepayers Having Plaints to Make Are Requested to Appear Before Joint Inquisition

Those who have complaints to make against the water rates or any charges to file against the high speed of the meters are requested to hand them in to the city clerk. The plaints of the fourth warders may be left at Councilman Bronner's residence if more convenient as that official will see they reach the inquisitors.

The investigation into the water charges will be commenced before the joint citizens and council committee, at the council chambers, this evening. The committee, composed of Councilmen Stiefvater, Cobbledick and Elliot and I. H. Clay, president of the Chamber of Commerce, E. A. Young, president of the Merchants' Exchange, and Dr. H. R. Tait, president of the Tri-City Rotary Club, formally organized last night with A. Stiefvater as chairman. City Clerk Thompson as secretary, and decided that the stenographer shall be jointly chosen by the committee and Frank A. Leach of the water company.

The committee proposes to take up and investigate all complaints made against the water company and to that end will take testimony when required.

"Lawyers for the water company or citizens will be barred," declared Chairman Stiefvater.

"That's it," joyfully declared I. H. Clay, "we are not going to let any technicalities stand in the way of getting at the merits of the dispute. We want to do equity between all concerned."

The members of the committee set forth that the hearing will be continued until every one is heard and urged that all complaints concerning overcharging or other wrongs relating to the conduct of the water company's operations and that affect the consumer should be sent in as early as possible.

The complaint which have been filed today are as follows:

The first one being addressed to the City Council:

"I herewith submit a statement of my complaint against the Peoples Water Company in regard to the premises, 1260 Grove street.

"I have for some time been paying a flat rate of $2.30 per month up to July 1, 1909. On applying for a bill after that date, I was informed that a change had been made to meter rates and my bill would be ready about September 1. I received it about that time. It read as follows.

"Meter bill from July 15, 1909, to August 14, 1909	$4.30
"Delinquent	1.10
"Total due	$5.40

"On September 2, 1909, it became necessary to put in a new valve in the boiler of said house and I had the firm of J. Rankin's Sons do the work. A plumber in their employ, James Madson, undertook to shut the water off while performing the said repair work on the boiler valve. He found the meter box filled with weeds, grass and trash and the glass over the meter dial itself covered with a thick coating of dirt, making a reading of the meter impossible.

"He called my attention to it and expressed the opinion that it had not been inspected for months and perhaps years. This was quite obvious and I showed the meter in its then condition to several witnesses to verify these statements, namely:

"F. Batchelder, painter, 1388 Brush street.

"H. A. Lutrell, attorney, 58 Bacon block.

"H. J. Fonts, hotel keeper, Pleasanton Hotel.

"E. Barnett, capitalist.

"Mr. Adams, reporter, Evening Mail.

"How the Peoples Water Company get the figures on which to base a charge of $4.30 is something beyond my comprehension, but they were certainly not had from the meter in front of the premises.

"Respectfully submitted,

"WM. M. HATFIELD."

ANOTHER COMPLAINT.

The following was addressed to I. H. Clay, from 120 Adams street:

"For the last year or two our flat rate has been $6.55, previously $7.15, and beginning ten years ago, $8.10 per month, while under the meter system our July-August bill was $9, and the August-September bill just to hand is $5.70, with no increase in plumbing fixtures or lawn surface to warrant an excessive increase in the quantity consumed.

"Trusting that you will succeed in having the matter settled on a fair and reasonable basis both to the company and the consumer, I am, Yours truly,

"THEO. F. DODGE."

The following is a duplicate of a letter sent to the Peoples Water Company:

"Inclosed, please find check for $6.55 for payment for the flat rate bill for hydrant.

"I am also returning bill for $14.80 for correction. This bill is absolutely ridiculous and I have telephoned to you office concerning the matter about which I complain. I should like to have one of your experts figure out how I can owe $14.80 for water for one month when for the last month it has been an absolute impossibility to get water in the upstairs part of my house. Not only that, but we have a well on our place, and for two weeks of this month we did not draw one drop of water from the Peoples Water Company, and during that time we were able to water our yard, and prior to that time there was not sufficient pressure to turn a sprinkler.

"Several times I have received bills from you with a phrase on them: 'Meter stopped.' One time I objected and you made me a fair price. The next time, I said nothing about it but paid the bill. I think, however, I am entitled to a certain amount of consideration from you and you cannot claim that my pipes are leaking owing to the fact that this is all new plumbing, but certainly your sense of fairness should make you realize that $14.80 for water for two weeks and that when it was impossible to have over one faucet in the house going at a time is a ridiculous price.

"If you will correct this bill, I shall very gladly pay the same. Yours very truly.

"P. T. CLAY.

"Twenty-seventh and East Sixteenth Street."

EXCESSIVE CHARGES.

The following was addressed to the city clerk:

"I wish to enter a complaint against the Peoples Water Company for excessive charges for water from July 15 to August 14. I have been paying a flat rate of $2.60 per month and this morning I received a bill for $6.80 from July 15 to August 14. I consider this nothing more or less than a steal for I have not used water to excess and have never received any notice that a change was to be made from a flat to a meter rate.

"Yours truly,

"H. J. ROBERTS,

"710 Fifteenth Street."

The following was sent to the commissioner:

"Lot 40x75. No lawn. Paid flat rate of $1.50 from July 1, 1908 to July 1, 1909. Company charged for water from July 1, 1909 to July 24, 1909, $2.30. Claimed 1,300 feet used as read from meter. Meter dial so covered with dust that the figures could not be seen.

"Bill for water from July 24 to August 24, 1909, as charged by company, $6.25. I claim that the meter was not read at all during July, '09, and that the company charged me for more than 2000 feet on the two bills above what I actually used. Meter readings since August 15 show that I am using about 500 feet of water per month.

"Would like to explain more fully but would make this writing too long. Am ready to give verbal testimony to your committee at any time required.

"W. S. DOLTIER,

"1413 Twelfth Avenue."

USES A NEWSPAPER TO FLAG A TRAIN

MARYSVILLE, Sept. 21. — Adolph Sommers lost a leg last night while riding on the train from Sacramento. When the train was nearing Wheatland the young man fell from the train and his right leg was severed just below the knee. He was otherwise cut and bruised.

The second section of the Oregon express was about due, and Sommers, having a newspaper in his pocket, made a torch of it and flagged the train. The crew took him aboard and brought him to this city.

Dr. Stone amputated the leg.

50,000 WOMEN SOLD YEARLY IN THE WHITE SLAVE TRAFFIC HERE

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Kate Barnard, who is state commissioner of charities and correction in the State of Oklahoma, and who defeated her nearest male competitor for that office by 1,000 votes, told why she is a suffragist, in a speech before the Woman's Trade Union League.

"I've been a suffragist for only six months," she said, "and it is your horrid conditions here that have made me one. It is your long blocks and your fallen women and the old, haggard faces of your children. In Oklahoma the men will give us rights, but here it seems you must have a vote to get anything.

"It is a dreadful thing," Miss Barnard continued, "to think of the sorrows of womankind. Fifty thousand women, I have just been learning, are brought into this country every year and sold as slaves under our church eaves, and we won't even go among them to pray. If we cared anything for our sisters who are dying, we would have our churches in the tenderloin. But the average favored woman can't see these things. The great problem of the age is to get her to see, but I don't know how to do it. We stand here and imagine we are good, and we are not a bit better than any woman who ever fell. What makes a good woman fall? It's her $4 a week."

RAILROAD MEN INSTALL OFFICERS

Supreme Organizer W. J. Wood Acted as the Installing Officer

There was an enthusiastic meeting of Oakland Division No. 3, Order of Railway Employes, in Fraternity hall, Seventh and Peralta, last Saturday night. Several hundred railroad men gathered to witness the installation of the new officers and to hear the reports of the wonderful growth of the big railroad fraternity which now embraces in its membership practically every railroad man in the West, with considerably over a thousand members in Oakland division alone.

The following officers were installed: Conductor, J. Rothberg; engineer, P. O. Donahue; motorman, P. J. Mather; fireman, J. B. Hausele; yardmaster, E. W. Falkner; brakeman, E. E. Wanacott; flagman, F. I. Eaton; treasurer, H. M. Baker; secretary, O. P. Bergsten.

Supreme Organizer W. J. Wood was the installing officer, and he prefaced the impressive ceremony with an interesting address, in which he told of the great progress of the order in the little more than three years since its organization. It now has a membership that reaches to every railroad division center in the Western States, he explained, and is gaining great headway in its growth westward, a large and powerful division having recently been installed in Denver. New memberships are being issued from the supreme office at the rate of over 100 a day, he stated, and this progress has already made the order the largest railway fraternal and benefit society in the world.

After Mr. Wood's address thirty candidates were put through the initiation ceremony, and all joined in a smoker. Men from every rank of railroad work and representing both the steam and electric lines were present. The hall was crowded to its capacity and the advisability of securing another meeting place was discussed. This will be left to a committee, to be named by Conductor Rothberg at the next meeting.

At the next meeting also a committee will be appointed to arrange for a dance and whist tournament which it is hoped to make the largest affair of its kind ever given in Oakland.

The members of Oakland division state that they expect to have a local membership of 5000 within a year, for the coming of the Western Pacific will bring many more railroad men to Oakland and hundreds of the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Oakland Traction employes are joining. The order is the only one in the railway world that embraces the workers in every railroad calling, from master mechanic to section hand.

EVERHART FAVORS OILED MACADAM

Would Have City Accept All Such Streets, But Suggestion Goes to Committee

Councilman Everhart last night, at a meeting of the City Council attempted to have that body agree on behalf of the city, to accept all oiled macadam streets. The proposition was new and after some discussion was referred to the street committee for further investigation.

"I would like to call the attention of the Council to the fact that Claremont avenue is a street which now is better than when it was first laid a year ago. It is an oiled macadam street. It is not dusty in summer time and it is not muddy in winter time. During the summer time the sun brings the oil to the surface and lays the dust. In the winter time the oil keeps the water from soaking in. I will state that there is not a better street in Alameda county than Claremont avenue. For that reason I would like this Council to adopt as a policy the proposition of accepting all streets which are laid with macadam and oil."

Councilman Baccus stated that he was not prepared to act on a matter of such importance until he had had further time to consider it. Chairman Vose stated that the matter was one of vital importance and thought that it should go to the street committee where it could be considered more fully than on the floor of the Council. This course was finally agreed on.

TWO CHILDREN DIE OF FRUIT POISONING

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 21.—In the mountains near Woodey Postoffice, forty miles from this city, Violet, the 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bowen, and her 4-year-old brother died mysteriously on Monday, and poison is suspected as the cause of death. The children were taken ill on Sunday night and lingered for fifteen hours through intense suffering. They had eaten of fruit during the evening, but other members of the family who partook of the same food were not affected.

Coroner Mcllhin left for the mountains this morning to hold an official investigation.

LAUNDRIES MUST SECURE LICENSE

A Method Proposed to Control Location of Wash-Houses

A solution of the pestiferous laundry and wash house problem is offered in an ordinance regulating and licensing those concerns, introduced at the City Council last evening by Councilman Stiefvater.

It requires that such business enterprises shall be required to obtain a license from the board of public works which is clothed with discretionary powers to grant or reject such applications. The applicant is furthermore required to post a notice on the premises he proposes to occupy, setting forth his intentions to operate a laundry at least ten days before engaging in the business.

Councilman Ellsworth declared his lack of faith in the ability of such an ordinance to hold water in the face of past experiences. The city refused on one occasion to grant a permit to a laundry and the case was taken to the courts and under a writ of mandamus the laundryman had his way about it.

Councilman Stiefvater attributed the result to the fact that the city had no ordinance in which the exercise of its discretionary police powers were definitely expressed and he had the opinion of the city attorney that such a regulation as he had introduced would withstand the legal tests.

Under a suspension of the rules it was passed to a second reading and from opinions expressed by the councilmen it will go on the ordinance book without dissent.

INTERMENT OF A PIONEER CITIZEN

Ex-Councilman Marshall is Laid Away to His Long Rest

The funeral of the late Charles K. Marshall took place yesterday afternoon at the chapel of the Oakland crematory. The services were private and attended only by the members of the family and a few intimate friends.

The deceased was prominently identified with the best interests of this city. He was at one time a member of the City Council and held the respect of the community for his integrity and honesty. He was related to the famous Marshall family of Kentucky and a descendant of the first Chief Justice of the United States, John Marshall. His mother was of the Knoxes of Virginia.

Mr. Marshall was born in Missouri in 1836 and came to California in 1852, settling in Solano county. In 1881 he married Julia E. Merritt of this city by whom he is survived together with four children, Misses Pauline and Lilia Marshall, Lawrence K. Marshall and Reginald M. Marshall.

In 1884 Mr. Marshall established himself in this city in the wood and coal business and afterwards opened a real estate and insurance office.

SHADOWS SHROUD THE MAN IN DOCK

Cries Out His Innocence of Crime and Tells of Sorrows

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—Dying with consumption, his son on his death bed with typhoid fever, and his wife in a hospital, Everett R. Sheffield fainted in Judge Shortall's court this morning when brought face to face with a charge of forgery.

The complaining witness is J. Munsell Chase, of the Western Hotel Reporter, who alleges that Sheffield presented an advertising contract signed by George H. Coolidge an debtained $800 for it from his cashier, Edward A. Naples. He asserts that Coolidge's signature was a forgery.

"I am innocent, judge," weeped the prisoner hysterically. "I'm dying of consumption. My only boy is dying of typhoid fever and my wife is in the hospital."

His feelings were so overcome by this outburst that he fell over in a faint and had to be carried into the chambers of the court. The case was then continued and the defendant released on motion of Assistant District Attorney Duke on his own recognizance.

Death of Governor Johnson.

The old line Democrats have lost their rising hope by the death of Governor John A Johnson of Minnesota It is a loss in which the nation shares, for the Minnesota executive possessed qualities which made him a valuable citizen and a magnetic leader He was an able administrator, a faithful official and a courageous man of affairs At the time of his death he was regarded by the opposition as the most formidable candidate the Democracy could put forward

Governor Johnson's rise was a striking example of the opportunities afforded for energy and character in American democracy The son of poor Scandinavian immigrants he lifted himself from a poverty even more squalid than that Lincoln encountered in his youth he had far better advantages for schooling, but in all other respects he was even worse handicapped than the Emancipator By his own unaided force and native talents he rose to political eminence in a State hostile to his theories of national policy, and was three times elected Governor when Minnesota went overwhelmingly Republican

John A Johnson was a good foil to William J Bryan he steadied and braced the party when Bryan stirred it with emotional appeals to passion and sentiment His party ideals were those of Tilden rather than of the emotional school generated by agrarian discontent and financial depression, and hence he did not plant himself on expedients suggested by transitory conditions He drew his inspiration from a firmer source and therefore always found himself in harmony with the teachers of the men who molded the Democratic party and made it dominant for many years in the politics of the nation He was getting in a position to lead his party as a more coherent and effective organization, and in doing which he would have rendered the country a valuable service since one of the greatest of our political needs today is a strong and well organized opposition

Who will succeed him as a capable and safe leader of the discordant Democracy is not apparent at this time though Governor Harmon of Ohio is the most promising figure now before the country But Governor Harmon has not the hold on the virile central Northwest that Governor Johnson had

To Exploit Oakland's Improvements.

The League of California Municipalities and the California Public Health Association met in joint convention at Santa Cruz today The convention will continue in session until Saturday Addresses on subjects of great public interest are to be delivered by several of the Mayors City Engineers and City Attorneys of various California municipalities in attendance

Oakland has not been overlooked in the program as Mayor Mott is down on it for an address on Municipal Improvements in this city It is a theme which affords ample opportunity for eloquent amplification and no one doubts the ability of the Mayor to do justice to the subject No one is better qualified to tell the story of the city's growth and the important public improvements which have been made here in recent years for the Mayor has been the central figure and in the larger meaning of the term the chief agent in their development He will doubtless outline also the still broader plans of self-improvement which Oakland is maturing and which will soon be put in material form with the virtually unanimous approval of the people as expressed in the coming [illegible] Oakland is on the eve of entering upon the most important stage in its career and the fact cannot be too generally and widely exploited abroad

Scientific Controversies.

Scientific investigators who claim to be the most precise and scrupulous of humankind, are having a hard time just now to sustain the claim and save their reputations Commander Peary has charged Dr Cook with being a faker and a liar by saying that he was not at the north pole on April 21 to 23, 1908, or any other time Now an Italian astronomer—a Signor Francisco Faccia de Schio de Bergamo—trips Peary's statement that he took astronomical observations on April 6, 1909 following a favorable opening in the clouds to determine his latitude, which, he has represented, showed that he was in north latitude 89 degrees 57 minutes, that is, within 3 minutes, or three and one half miles of the true pole

The point that Signor Faccia makes is that with the horizon at 87 degrees 57 minutes, the moon could not be seen at the time indicated by Peary, because from midnight, April 5, Paris time, or 6 o'clock central standard time, the declination of the moon became negative—that is, it was below the equator, which, being the natural horizon of the pole made it invisible, and that on midnight, April 6 Paris time the moon was 2 1-2 degrees below the equator and that refraction on the horizon could not have rendered it visible Moreover, he adds no sailor could, under even normal atmospheric conditions, determine his latitude by any star then on the horizon

Another scientific controversy is sure to grow out of the published statement by Director W W Campbell of Lick Observatory regarding the condition of the planet Mars as the result of the observations conducted by the expedition financed by W H Crocker of San Francisco Campbell denies everything that the Lowell Observatory at Flagstaff Ariz claims to have discovered in the condition of Mars He denies positively the existence of any evidence of vapor in the ruddy planet and charges that the vapor in the earth's atmosphere has been mistakenly attributed to it that the alleged polar snow caps of Mars are not caused by snow but by carbon dioxide, the last remnant of an ancient atmosphere that Mars is as dead as the moon that the clouds said to have been observed floating on the surface of Mars were specks floating in the earth's atmosphere telescopically magnified that the changes in the markings noted on the planet's surface are due to changes in the seasons and probably due to ordinary changes of vegetation Strange to say the latter assumption upsets all of the other theories of Director Campbell for vegetable life is as dependent for its existence as human life is on the oxygen in the atmosphere

The repudiation of the existence of life in Mars is based on the assumption that it cannot exist in other worlds except under the conditions existing on this terrestrial sphere Such an assumption places a limitation on the creative power of the universe Human conception of life is narrowed down to earthly conditions whereas it is not beyond the domain of reason to assume that life may exist in other worlds under conditions absolutely different from those existing on this globe and that one law of existence cannot be applied to the universe at large

California's public school and roads fund profited last year to the extent of $191,458.69 as the result of the operation of the Agricultural Appropriation Act of May 1908 which provides that 25 per cent of all moneys received from national forest reserves shall be paid to the State in which the reserve is situated for the benefit of the public schools and county in which the reserve is located

A campaign of falsehood detraction and misrepresentation goes well with a candidacy of false pretense and unjust motive In harmony with such a campaign and such a candidacy is the resort to every technical device known to the law to prevent a recount of the vote on the Democratic ticket for District Attorney A candidate who claims to be actuated by a desire to purify politics presents an inspiring spectacle clinging to a nomination by a majority tainted with fraud and conspiracy That is Francis J Heney's position before the people of San Francisco It is openly charged with specific detail that the slender plurality he has on the face of the returns was manufactured in the count that it is a creature of the work of the Democratic electors procured by fraudulent devices in violation of the election law Yet Heney holds a nomination so procured in the face of the pretenses he is making as a candidate He says nothing himself, but he has his lawyers working zealously to prevent a recount of the ballots A variety of technical objections are set up to evade going behind the returns Heney's truly attempts to avoid a recount and his relying upon the methods by which a minority was converted into a majority have not escaped public attention

The ancestry of the tribes of Pacific Coast Indians as descended from Asiatics has been recognized by anthropologists for the better part of a half century, hence it is no new discovery that the department of anthropology of the State University professes to have made at this late date Still there seems to have been an immense amount of scientific energy wasted by the university department in proving a fact that had been established scientifically by the California Academy of Sciences nearly forty years ago and by squawmen many years before the academy took up the subject

Habit of Wearing Eye Glasses Steadily Growing in This Country

A greater number of persons than ever are now wearing eyeglasses or spectacles said Dr Eugene G Winter of Boston Up to a short time ago the demand for lenses was so great that the manufacturers were swamped with orders and it was feared in this country that there would be a serious dearth of lenses All of the glass that is used in the optical business is imported The greater part of it comes from Germany the rest is made in England It seems that American glass manufacturers have thus far been unable to produce glass of the requisite quality for the eye glasses

The greatest defect in American eyesight is its inability to see at great distances The majority of persons who wear eyeglasses or spectacles are near-sighted Even those born with perfect eyes have been forced before they are very old to resort to glasses that they may see everything going on This myopia is due almost entirely to the artificial conditions that surround a human being in this present age almost from his very babyhood

As cities increase in size and as the conveniences that are offered in any one city increase so does the value of real estate increase And with the rise in realty values the height of buildings increases and partitions become more numerous Skyscrapers are all the obstructions to long ranges of vision The more or less livid and tiresome colorings of their walls have usurped in man's vision the place of the restful and unfathomable blue of the sky The apartments in these new buildings are of smaller dimension than those in the old-fashioned buildings, for the air space allotted to each and every person in the community must be curtailed to make the investment on the building in any way profitable It makes no difference whether one is employed all day in a small office poring over a set of books or whether he is hurrying about the city streets he cannot see very far about him And even in his home the walls of his room have been grouped more closely about him

"The fish that were found in the stream of the Mammoth Cave were discovered to be totally blind although they at one time did possess sight The same law that was operative in depriving these fish of their sight is operative today in the great congested centers of modern civilization and it is only a question of time when the eyes of those who are compelled to work in artificial light all day long will become so unaccustomed to daylight that blinders will have to be resorted to —Washington Herald

GAY FARMS OF JAPAN

Land is so scarce in Japan and the people are so numerous that a farm rarely consists of more than an acre or two These little farms are divided up into tiny fields

During the season of the year in which we made our journey one of these fields was filled with sprouting barley light green in color another field—perhaps the next—with vetch, a lavender colored cloverlike fodder

A neighboring field was covered with a dark green grass from the seed of which a lamp oil is manufactured another with the pale yellow flowers of the mustard, and scattered here and there fields filled with what looked like a variety of lilies—some white some red some yellow but all equally brilliant.

Then to get the complete picture you must imagine patches of flowering azaleas dotting the roadside towering round topped camelia trees breaking the skyline with frequent splashes of bright green usually in the shade of these trees houses with white plastered walls and red tiled roofs about the more pretentious of these houses white plastered walls above which appeared a profusion of palms roses and strange native flowers and in the doorways or the garden walls kimono clad Japanese girls —the kimonos as many and as gayly colored as the gardens that framed them —Montreal Standard

Jersey Prophet Predicts There Is to Be Hard Winter

Columbus Roarty of Greenwood Lake made up his annual visitation here today to announce the weather for the coming fall and winter The prophecies of Columbus Roarty—he refuses to call them prognostications or even predictions—have been accepted for thirty years here abouts as only a little in advance of fact He is so sure about the weather that he always buys his winter supplies in summer and the reverse All his prophecies are based on signs from nature

We're going to have a mighty cold winter said Columbus Everything points to a cold fall and riproaring winter For one thing have you noticed this season's corn? Every ear has grown long whiskers and that's a sure sign The corn seems to have the sense of a Morris county granger in this respect A wise farmer'll grow a good crop of whiskers as winter advances The harder the winter the longer and thicker the whiskers The same way with the corn I've never noticed longer breezers than they have this season

You may have noticed too that the sunflowers blossomed early That means that we will have an early frost and early snow We will have a blizzard of the 1888 brand along about the middle of November Then look at the apple trees I can't remember when we had such a poor crop That means that the trees are storing up all their sap and energy against a hard spell of weather and a long winter In summers before a mild winter there is always a fine crop of apples The present condition by the way too means a hard winter for the lover of applejack

As a clincher I might say that the cabbages are onto the fact that we are going to have a record breaking winter When a man says cabbage head I mean an ignoramus he doesn't know what he is talking about for the cabbages are the wisest of vegetables Every head of cabbage on my farm this summer is growing thick tough leaves and all leaves they are providing warm coverings for the old weather that they know we are going to buck up against this winter —N Y Press

Just as sure as a woman doesn't like to do anything it makes her happy to do it for her family

Even when a woman is talking to a man over the telephone she takes a graceful pose so he can admire her figure

You can tell when a girl has been making by the way she looks as if she had been saying her prayers

When a man begins telling a woman about his past love affairs he is planning to tell another to the list

If a man knew as much about cooking as he does about finding fault with it he wouldn't need so much brains to be superior to woman

English Opinion

The two motives which can most deeply move the Irish party are faith and whisky, but of late the whisky has been getting far ahead of the other inspiration They can support the budget and even keep quiet about the faith until the bottle is touched then they stand up for the cause of Ireland like one man, and the government teetotallers give way to them in various important concessions including a reduction in favor of 'small breweries" In return for the Welsh teetotallers' generosity to the Irish bottle the Irishmen help them to harass the owners of property in Great Britain No doubt the poorer a community the smaller ought to be the initial quantity that can be sold under a license but what appeals to the professional patriots in Parliament is that they cannot hold their seats and neglect the bottle Let them differ from the publican and the priest and there is an end of the Irish Parliamentary party—Saturday Review

Object Lesson for Incorporationists

(Elmhurst (Cal) Advance)

During the last campaign for the annexation of adjoining suburbs to Oakland the following letter was published in THE TRIBUNE

In 1898 the citizens of New York voted to annex Brooklyn Kings county, part of Queens county on Long Island and the whole of Richmond county and form what is now Greater New York There was at that time as is generally the case people who were opposed to annexation, and this project for a greater city was no exception to the rule but the annexationists carried the day, and the present great city of over 4,000,000 population is the result

The anti annexation faction soon found that their property which had not hitherto enjoyed the benefit of police and fire protection etc, rapidly increased in value The outlying districts soon filled with a very desirable population who were not afraid to erect beautiful homes and all properties further advanced in price till today it has in most cases trebled in value and in other cases is worth five or six times as much It is safe to say that this same property, without the advantages derived from fire and police protection under competent city control, would be worth today little more than in 1898

I have traveled extensively throughout the United States and find that in all cases annexation is a great benefit to the districts annexed

Respectfully yours E F LENOX.

Opinions on Monetary Commission

The appearance of members of the National Monetary Commission before the public for the discussion of the problem of banking and currency reform is welcomed Whatever reforms are to be commended by the commission and enacted by Congress must at least have the backing of public confidence and the fullest extent as is possible an active public support —Boston Herald

The fact is that our system of currency has been one of makeshifts and expedients from the time of the legal tenders of which $346,000,000 are still current until the passage of the currency bill of the last Congress to temporarily avert a recurrence of the monetary panic of 1907 —Philadelphia Record

Our methods in trade are as ancient and as productive of loss and disaster as was our treatment of our soldiers during the Spanish war—we lose more at home than we suffer at the hands of the enemy All our efforts on the field of battle are handicapped by the defects of the system at home—our financial system has been well described as worse than barbarous' —Jacksonville Times Union

"When Mr Aldrich brings in a currency bill based upon investigations made in his country and in Europe and offers a committee report in support of it a period of very warm discussion in Congress and out will be inaugurated with the result much in doubt. —Washington Star

There are obvious difficulties in applying any cut and dried plan to the United States simply because it has worked well elsewhere What the commission appears to be attempting is to get at the essential principles which govern the banking systems of other countries and to adapt those principles to the wide area and varied conditions of the United States —Boston Transcript.

"If as now seems probable a comprehensive financial measure should be enacted before the expiration of the present Congress on March 4 1911 the first half of Mr Taft's term would secure a lasting place in history Tariffs come and tariffs go but a well balanced and comprehensive scheme of monetary legislation ought to last for several decades —St Louis Globe Democrat

Political Comment

William J Bryan again finds reason to criticise President Taft's attitude on the proposed constitutional amendment to establish direct election of Senators by the people Mr Bryan will hardly gain credit with practical men of progressive tendencies by the attitude he takes in this matter —Chicago Record-Herald

If Mr Bryan wants to worry and snarl because the President has not gone off on the tangent of popular election of Senators let him do it There are some things which we can't tolerate but we can get along for a while yet with the United States Senate although elected by the legislatures Bryan's wail is ill-timed —Worcester Gazette

The Baby Came

(BY W S H)

Away up high above the stars,
Ever and ever so high! so high
A band of lovely babies played
Hide and seek in the deep blue sky.

They leaped and cooed and romped at will
And never a tot in the lovely lot—
Never a tot, for its life, could keep still

Happy were they as the birds down here
Playing and singing and cooing all day,
For they had no cares and heaven was near
And the angels watched over each little dear

One day a rainbow came out in the sky,
And its gorgeous tints glowed far below,
And one little cherub amongst the band
Cooed and hopped down on to the bow.

And it laughed [illegible] as it glided down
And [illegible] down
[illegible]
 [illegible]
And that's how Baby Wallace came,
 you see.

Celebrate Fifty Years of Happy Married Life

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT WIRTH.

The fiftieth anniversary of their wedding was fittingly celebrated Sunday by Roberth Wirth and his wife at the home of Magnus Kjelsberg, the Nome mining magnate, on Seminary avenue. Many friends gathered to facilitate the aged couple and congratulate them on having lived together in the harmony of happy married life for fifty years.

Plans had been made by their daughter, Mrs Elsa Gordon of East Moss avenue, to take charge of the festivities, but Mrs Gordon and her husband, M. Gordon, a Nome mining capitalist, were called away to the far north at the last moment by business interests.

The Wirths were married September 18, 1859, in New York, where for many years Wirth was a prosperous business man. He is a native of Hanover, Germany, and his wife of New York. Nine children were born to them, of whom three survive. They are Mrs. Elsa Gordon of Nome, Alaska; Alfred Wirth of San Francisco and Robert Wirth of New York. Mr. Wirth is seventy five years of age and still hearty and vigorous. His wife is seven years younger. They have lived in California for sixteen years.

Mrs. Kjelsberg proved a charming hostess on the occasion.

COUNT DE TROOST SEEK A DIVORCE

Says He Was Deserted But Wants to Avoid Paying Alimony

LOS ANGELES, Sept 21. — Count George L. de Troost, formerly of San Francisco, has begun suit for divorce against Margaret Elizabeth de Troost in the Los Angeles county Superior Court. He alleges cruelty and desertion and asks that he be absolved from paying alimony.

De Troost says he was goaded to desperation by importunities and insults heaped upon him by his wife, who he says caused his arrest several times on trivial charges and caused him continual annoyance and discomfort by her eccentric conduct.

The complaint sets forth that the couple were married in San Rafael January 1, 1897. It alleges that the woman was treated with the greatest consideration and even extravagance, but that he in return for a home and all the comforts that money could buy was cruelly and neglectful in her duties.

HER ACCUSATIONS

Count de Troost says he accused him of ... less conduct with other women and so ... and harassed him that he was forced to leave his home in the north and come to Los Angeles. Here he says she followed him and caused his arrest on a foolish and trumped up charge much to his annoyance and to the detriment of himself in the business world.

Count de Troost's attorneys declare that ... with his wife and that she is a sensationalist and seeks to advertise herself.

They cite as an instance the alleged fact that recently in San Francisco she reported to the police that anonymous letters had been tied to her door handle ... pillow insulting her. She also caused somewhat of a sensation in Los Angeles not long ago when she brought about the arrest of her husband on charges involving another woman. Mrs. de Troost's side of the story has not yet been heard here.

GRANT REDUCTION IN CITY LIGHTING CONTRACT

The bid of the Oakland Gas Light and Heat Company to light the city of Oakland for the ensuing year was accepted by the Council at a meeting last night. The company granted a reduction of three cents per thousand watt hours, which was satisfactory to the councilmen present.

An ordinance authorizing the award of the contract for lighting was then passed to print.

WARNS PRESIDENT AGAINST SCHEME

Louis R. Glavis Writes Taft in Defense of His Actions

SEATTLE, Sept 21. — L. R. Glavis, late chief of the Seattle field division of the United States land office, has written the following letter to President Taft:

"The President—Sir: I have laid before you all the essential facts in my possession regarding the official conduct of certain cases by the department of the interior concerning coal lands in Alaska. As chief of field division directly concerned and because of the tremendous values involved, I felt my personal responsibility most keenly. The evidence indicated that a great syndicate is trying to secure a monopoly of this coal in direct violation of the law. Ultimately I felt myself obliged to appeal to you over the heads of my superior officers in order to bring about the enforcement of the law which, in a measure would conserve these coal lands to the people at large. I deem it my duty to submit the facts to you, and I can not regret my action.

Since there may be now even greater danger that the title to these coal lands will be fraudulently secured by the syndicate it is no less my duty to my country to make public the facts in my possession, concerning which I firmly believe that you have been misled. This I shall do in the near future, with a full sense of the seriousness of my action and with deep and abiding respect for your great office.

Respectfully,

PREPARING STATEMENT

After making public his letter to President Taft Glavis said:

I have said the last word in this matter until my own official statement is ready for publication. My letter to President Taft is self explanatory. My reason for making public my letter is because the President made public his letter in which he attacked my judgment and intelligence and the propriety of my conduct as a government employe. I am confident of the soundness of my position and that I will be able so to convince the people of this country I have no doubt.

Just when the statement I am to prepare will be made public I can not say, but I believe it will be within a few days.

LADDER SLIPPED AND BROKE HIS RIBS

MELROSE, Sept 21. — Joe Bradbury, a machinist and well known resident of Melrose, was severely injured yesterday afternoon by a fall from a ladder and is being attended by a physician for two broken ribs of the left side.

Bradbury was repairing a patent chimney on the side of his residence and was about twenty feet from the ground when the ladder slid along the side of the house and he fell to the ground. He struck on a pile of wood, breaking two of his ribs. Internal injuries of no other nature are feared but the injuries sustained will prevent him resuming his work on the railroad for some time.

WILL SUPREME COURT KNOCK RACING LAW?

Dr. G. J. Tufts of Berkeley, superintendent of the Reform bureau, which was active in securing the passage of the Otis-Walker anti racing bill, has issued a statement in which he makes the assertion that a Los Angeles lawyer, whose name he will not divulge, declares that the Supreme Court will invalidate the bill in a decision which is to be rendered during the coming month.

Tufts describes his informant as "one of the noted race track men of the United States" and goes on to say that he has also told him that Tom Williams had planned to open a track at Tia Juana, just across the Mexican border from San Diego, and that race tracks are soon to be started in the Mexican border towns across the line from El Paso, Eagle Pass and Brownsville. This is denied.

No matter how long you have suffered, Foley's Kidney Remedy will help you. Mrs. S. L. Bowen of Wayne, W. Va., writes: "I was a sufferer from kidney disease so that at times I could not get out of bed, and when I did I could not stand straight. I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." It will cure you. Sold at Wishart's drug store, corner Tenth and Washington streets.

Prize Winners OF Angie Contest

Clever and Artistic Answers Receive Awards

Angie and her automobile love affair have held quite a place in Oakland during the past week. Not only in THE TRIBUNE office, but in the homes where the puzzle was being solved and in the stores whose names were used in the puzzle. Out of several hundred answers received in THE TRIBUNE office about fifty were correct in their list of names. These answers varied in form from the ones clipped from the paper and filled in with pencil to those elaborately illustrated in water color. As artistic merit was one of the terms stipulated the judges chose the cleverest and most artistic answers out of the entire number of correct ones.

The following is the list of THE TRIBUNE's prize winners.

First prize, $25—Ange G. Hunter, 1363 Twenty-third avenue, East Oakland.

Second prize, $15—Mrs. Adele W. Wright, 593 Valdez avenue, Oakland.

Third prize, $10—Mrs. A. M. Mitchell, 814 San Pablo avenue.

These prizes will be awarded to the winner upon application to the business manager of THE TRIBUNE.

Honorary mention is made of answers submitted by F. Julia Thomas, 305 Hillside avenue, Piedmont; Nellie S. Gross, 226 Grand avenue; Mrs. La Vada Butler, 1662 Waverly street, and Clarence Cushman, 1361 Tenth avenue.

As it was impossible to print today a full list of the winners of the prizes offered by individual concerns, some of the decisions being still unmade, it has been decided to have those announcements made by letter and those people who wrote clever letters to the stores will still have reason to hope for prizes.

Because of the general interest in the correct names used in the story the list follows.

1. Cape Anne Bakery.
2. Century Electric Company.
3. J. A. Bright.
4. Scotch Plaid Tailors.
5. Ye Liberty Candy Company.

Miss Georgie Cope, the well known contralto, will make her first appearance at this concert since her return from Europe, and her many friends will no doubt be present in full numbers to offer her a welcome home.

The other soloist will be Eugene Blanchard, the pianist, who will play the brilliant and popular concertstucke of Weber with orchestral accompaniment.

The orchestra has prepared some particularly attractive numbers, including the Haydn Symphony in G No. 2; the Beethoven Menuet in G, and Deutscher Tanz of Dittersdorff, which were played with such success by the violinist, Mischa Elman; Gounods' "Mirella" Overture; the popular Titl "Serenade" for cello and flute, the solo parts played by William Dehnert and T. Bacher; and selections from the ever welcome "Carmen."

Advises Men to Curb Extravagant Wives

CHICAGO; In a search for authoritative information on the essentials of the ideal wife, the Rev. Percival Barker of Maywood, known as the "brass band minister," has sent out letters to a number of husbands and will discuss the answer from his pulpit next Sunday.

He began the solution of the problem yesterday in his sermon at the First Congregational church by denunciation of the modern girl, who expects her husband to put her in a home as expensive as that from which she came.

He said that men today should say to extravagant wives:

"I can't keep the pace. I am going to keep on the right side of my dollar."

Mismated Two Husbands Agree to Trade Wives

ELGIN, Ill.—A strange story has come to light through the issuance of a marriage licenses at Geneva, Ill., to William McPherson, 29, and Mrs. Mary B. Warner, 28.

Each was granted a divorce a year ago, the former wife of McPherson leaving for Cuba, Wis., after the decree was issued. She has since been joined there by William Warner, former husband of the woman who figures in the new license issued to McPherson.

Previous to the court's action in granting legal separation to both couples it had been understood that the trade was mutually satisfactory, and it is supposed that a similar license will soon be taken out at Cuba by Warner to wed Mrs. McPherson.

New Ideas in Birth Cards

Instead of conventional engraved cards of parents and new-born child, tied with white satin ribbons, there is a novelty card that is charming.

It is the hand-painted profile of a baby's head on a long white paper slip. One little hand and the careless frill of lace around the neck are suggested in pencil.

On the white paper are written the name of the newly born and the date of its birth.

The long, narrow envelope is also handmade and sealed with the family crest in wax, or a tiny silver seal with the family initial in the center.

The day after the great event these cards are mailed to all friends of the couple in all parts of the country.

Beetle, Vampire And Eagle in Gowns

Mrs. Gridley Working to Get Fitting Memorial for Her Famous Naval Son

MRS. ANNE GRIDLEY.

Mrs. Anne Gridley, mother of Captain Charles Gridley, commander of the flagship Olympia, who, upon Dewey's memorable command, "You may fire when ready, Gridley," opened the famous battle of Manila bay. Ten years she has been working to secure a fitting memorial to her son, and only recently secured the necessary sum. All this time she had been working at her desk in the land office at Washington, a position she was compelled to resign a few weeks ago because of ill health.

She left the government service at the age of 84 years, and was believed to be the oldest woman in the employ of Uncle Sam. Mrs. Gridley was an army nurse during the Civil War. Two of her sons were in that conflict, one serving in the army, the other in the navy.

Many Startling New Creations Put on View at Exhibition of Ladies' Tailors' Association

NEW YORK.—If you see your wife or best girl wearing a wonderfully made American eagle cape, with black satin wings spreading from peach colored fabric; if you behold her in a green "beetle" suit with two-inch buttons showing life-sized beetles; if she wears a "mannish gown," with two creases ironed upon the front, or a "vampire cape," then you will know she has taken notes at the Trade Exhibition of the United Ladies' Tailors' Association of America, which opened in the assembly room of Masonic Temple, Sixth avenue and Twenty-third street yesterday.

The exhibition forecasts the styles—some of them weird, indeed—which will be the vogue before many days have passed. The exhibition will be in evidence every day this week, morning, afternoon and night, and seventy-two new and startling creations will be on view tomorrow.

One of the handsomest designs is the American Eagle cape. This has a coat back with cape effect, the sleeves merging in the body of the cloak with wing effect. The wings and facings are of black satin, so that a woman wearing a peach colored cloak when she extends her arms, resembles an eagle, on outstretched pinions.

The "vampire" cape is something decidedly new, for it enables a woman to adjust her hair or hat without danger of tearing away her sleeve in an effort to raise her hand. The sleeves are loose, and while giving a sleeve effect the arm is perfectly free and the wearer is privileged to move both arms without disarranging her entire gown.

The "beetle" suit has two wings in the back, the points of which meet at the heels and taper off gradually to the bust. Two lines of large buttons, each created with golden images of a beetle outline the wings.

There are exhibitors from New York and Boston, and Boston, Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia designers are represented. The purpose of the exhibition is to advance American designs in dress and to curtail the importations, some $27,000,000 being annually spent on gowns from Europe.

Gertrude Banet's Hair on Fire

NEW YORK.—Gertrude Barrett is such a little heroine of the "Such Little Queen" company, at the Hackett Theater, for not only did she save herself from a very perilous extremity Thursday afternoon, but she put out what might have been a serious fire with a sofa pillow.

Miss Barrett was cooking things in her apartment at 142 West Forty-fourth street ("things" is indefinite, but very, very nice) on an alcohol lamp, and the lamp caught fire. The blaze caused Miss Barrett's hair to catch fire, and it singed her eyebrows—much false hair and an expense account at a local beauty doctor's is one of the unfortunate results of this little conflagration.

Miss Barrett is quick of mind, however, and she caught up a sofa pillow, put out her hair with it, and then extinguished the lamp. Her injuries, while not severe, were painful, and when she played at the Hackett at night she went through the performance with such sand and grit as to win and merit the praise of the whole company.

Wooing of Harold Vanderbilt And Pretty "Tommy" Sears

Girl Who Drank Cocktails at Coronado Beach Bar Does the Same Thing Back East

Newport has decided that if Tommy Sears has any real inclination to become Mrs. Harold Sterling Vanderbilt she need only say the word, says Town Topics. Observing people have noticed Harold's uneasiness when this interesting young person is not at his side, and Mrs. Belmont let the cat out of the bag by saying that her son under no circumstances could be induced to come to Newport this summer until he knew that Tommy was to be there.

They are usually together. She delights in driving his big gray car and he doesn't mind even a little bit waiting for her one hour at a time outside of the Casino. Harold is as good-looking as he is modest; in fact, I believe he is the best looking and most modest of all the Vanderbilt men. He is the tallest in the family and if he resembles any one it is Alfred, and his height and his fairness are in absolute contrast with his brother, Willie K., Jr. I have not the slightest doubt that, if he is not deeply in love with Tommy he is at least much infatuated.

But one cannot tell anything about Tommy. Her manner to Harold Vanderbilt is no different from her manner to Paul Rainey last summer, or last autumn to De Lancey Jay. Just as she stood up at the bar in Coronado Beach last winter and drank Scotch and soda with the polo players, she calls for her favorite at the Westchester Polo Club of Newport, and as I watch her disport herself like any well-bred young man I wonder that she does not have hip pockets cut in the back of her skirts and smoke a pipe instead of cigarettes. Both Tommy and Harold disappeared from Newport on the same day—the gossips say after Harold had a row with mamma.

Women Clash With Police on Question of the Nude in Art

PITTSBURG.—Superintendent McQuade of the police department the other day refused to suppress a copy of the famous painting, "La Siesta," by L. Zier. The copy was exhibited in the window of a local art store, and Mrs. Percival Brown, who is prominent in this city, declared that it was indecent.

Superintendent McQuade sent a policeman censor to see the picture, and then notified Mrs. Brown and several of her friends that when they had had all the nude studies removed from the Carnegie Art Galleries here he would suppress "La Siesta." He also informed Mrs. Brown that only persons of perverted minds would see anything wrong in the picture of a sleeping woman.

Several women are preparing a petition to Mayor Magee asking for the removal of Superintendent McQuade.

IF YOU LIKE CHORUS GIRLS, ARE YOU INSANE?

Not a Bit of It, Say Alienists---Even Hard-Headed Business Men Run After Them

CINCINNATI—In the attempt in court today to do away with the guardianship of Dwight Kinney Jr., son of the late Dwight Kinney, wealthy clubman and wine agent, chorus girls were mentioned as a test of insanity.

The motion to set aside the guardianship will be taken to the Common Pleas Court and fought out before a Chancellor. Probate Judge Lueder overruled the motion to-day and an appeal was granted.

Depositions were offered by Attorneys Charles and Thorne Baker in support of their motion. These were depositions of physicians at the St. Joseph Retreat at Dearborn, Mich., who testified that young Kinney had been a patient there at various times for treatment and that he was sane. It developed in these affidavits that since his marriage to Miss Lucille Tompkins of Detroit, August 1, young Kinney has returned to the retreat three times of his own accord.

The testimony is that he went there as to a home and gave as his reasons that Mrs. Tompkins acted irrationally toward him and that he simply wished to be at the retreat. This returning of Kinney, the physicians said, did not indicate to them that the young man was irrational or in need of mental treatment.

In answer to the hypothetical question whether or not the fact that a boy of fourteen or fifteen associated with chorus girls and made debts without means to pay them was an indication of imbecility or insanity, the physicians responded that it could hardly be so considered; that many men of recognized business ability and even men of prominence and members of the nobility had, according to popular account, at times run after chorus girls and in some instances even married them.

INDIAN LOVE SONG

My body sleeps: my heart awakes.
My lips to breathe thy name are mov'd
In slumber's ear: then slumber breaks;
And I am drawn to thee, belov'd.
Thou drawest me, thou drawest me,
Through sleep, through night. I hear the rills,
And hear the leopard in the hills,
And down the dark I feel to thee.

The vineyards and the villages
Were silent in the vales, the rocks;
I follow'd past the myrrhy trees,
And by the footsteps of the flocks.
Wild honey, dropp'd from stone to stone,
Where bees have been, my path suggests.
The winds are in the eagles' nests.
The moon is hid. I walk alone.

Thou drawest me, thou drawest me
Across the glimmering wildernesses,
And drawest me, my love, to thee,
With dove's eyes hidden in thy tresses.
The world is many; my love is one;
I find no likeness for my love.
The cinnamons grow in the grove;
The Golden Tree grows all alone.

O who hath seen her wondrous hair,
Or seen my dove's eyes in the woods?
Or found her voice upon the air,
Or where is beauty like to hers?
Her steps along the solitudes?
She draweth me, she draweth me.
I sought her by the incense-tree,
And in the aloes, and in the firs.

Where art thou, O my heart's delight,
With dove's eyes hidden in thy locks?
My hair is wet with dews of night.
My feet are torn upon the rocks.
The cedarn scents, the spices, fall
About me. Strange and stranger seems
The path. There comes a sound of streams
Above the darkness on the vale.

No trees drop gums; but poison flowers
From rifts and clefts all round me fall;
The perfumes of thy midnight bowers,
The fragrance of thy chambers, all
Is drawing me, is drawing me.
Thy baths prepare; anoint thine hair;
Open the window; meet me there:
I come to thee, to thee, to thee!

Thy lattices are dark, my own.
Thy doors are still. My love, look out.
Arise, my love with tender tone.
The [illegible] listens all about
Are wildering. Dawn breaks silently.
And all my spirit with the dawn
Expands; and, slowly, slowly drawn,
Through mist and darkness moves toward thee.

—Robert, Earl of Lytton.

PEARY GREETED BY HIS WIFE AT SYDNEY

Hearty Welcome is Accorded Explorer as He Sails Into Port on Roosevelt

CHILDREN DELIGHTED TO SEE THEIR FATHER

They Wave Hands and Throw Kisses to Their Famous Sire

SYDNEY, N S W, Sept 21—Commander Robert E Peary, after his successful quest of the North Pole, returned to Sydney today on board the steamer Roosevelt. The explorer's wife was the first to greet him and as the Roosevelt after an absence of more than a year steamed into Sydney harbor under a brilliant sun the explorer and his ship were given a hearty welcome from the assembled shipping.

At an early hour today when the Roosevelt was still edging her way across the Cape Breton coast the steam yacht Sheelah owned by James Ross, president of the Dominion Coal Company, put to sea carrying Mrs Peary, her daughter Miss Marie Peary, little Robert E Peary Jr and a party of friends all eager to meet the returning explorer. Among those on board were Colonel Borup, father of George Borup, a member of the Peary expedition, George Kennan the author, and John Kehl the United States consul at Sydney.

MEETING WITH WIFE

The meeting between Commander Peary and his wife took place some ten miles north of Low Point, the entrance to the harbor. The Sheelah ran alongside the Roosevelt and Mrs Peary called a greeting to her husband while the members of the welcoming party and the crews of both vessels cheered lustily.

Miss Peary and little Robert were overjoyed at seeing their father and threw him kisses and waved their hands as the Sheelah came alongside. The Roosevelt and the Sheelah then continued on their course together for Sydney.

Commander Peary had decorated his ship for the occasion and in addition to the flags of the United States and the Dominion of Canada the Roosevelt flew the burgee of the New York Yacht Club and the flag of the Peary Arctic Club.

Meanwhile the news that the Roosevelt was only twenty miles away spread rapidly and great groups of people gathered at the water front to take part in the welcome.

OFFICIAL WELCOME.

The day was perfect and the harbor presented a beautiful spectacle when the tug C M Winch conveyed the welcoming party down the bay. This party included the mayor of Sydney, Wallace Richardson, the heads of the various city departments and other prominent officials.

The proposed banquet to the explorer has been held in abeyance until Commander Peary shall define his wishes to the mayor.

As the morning advanced business in Sydney came to an end. Stores were closed, the hotels were emptied of their guests and the crowd at the water front increased rapidly.

Southern Girl Achieves Fame By Her Statue, 'The Lost Cause'

MISS BELLE KENNEY
and statue she has designed.

MONUMENT FOR WOMEN OF SOUTH

Miss Belle Kinney Completes Masterpiece of Sculpture That Draws Praise

NASHVILLE, Tenn, Sept 21—A monument of heroic size representing the women of the south who gave up their home and family during the civil war has just been completed by Miss Belle Kinney, a twenty two year old southern girl who has called her statue, which promises her a place at the head of American sculptors, "The Lost Cause."

The monument has already been accepted by several States who left the union at the time of the rebellion and replicas of the young sculptor's design will probably be erected in a public square to be set aside for that purpose in the capitals of each.

In her latest work Miss Kinney is said to have achieved a masterpiece both in conception and execution.

The central figure of the monument emblematic of the Goddess of Fame is of heroic size. A reclining figure at her right with an expression of sadness represents the self sacrificing southern woman of the war times. Fame is represented as placing a wreath on the [illegible] woman's head while she supports at her left a dying and emaciated Confederate soldier, whom the southern woman is extending the palm of victory [illegible].

A similar design submitted by an Italian sculptor several years ago was refused [illegible] both the north and the south because of the narrowness and bitterness of the idea it expressed. In the girl's work however there is only a great sorrow and a great peace suggested and the work has been unanimously approved.

FORMER CONVICT IS CHARGED WITH BURGLARY

Charles Thomas, a former inmate of the penitentiary in this State, was charged with burglary and held to answer this morning by Judge Samuels in Police Court No. [illegible]. It is alleged he broke into the room of V Milidenovitch at the Newland Hotel and made away with an overcoat which he found hanging in the closet. He was chased and arrested by Police Officer Gallagher. In absence of $500 bail he went to jail.

MUST COME HOME IN FOUR YEARS OR LOSE $20,000 CASH

BOONTON, N J, Sept 21—Unless Charles A Zabriskie returns to his family here within four years he will lose a legacy of $20,000, according to the will of his father, which has been filed for probate.

Zabriskie disappeared two years ago and subsequently was mentioned in a divorce action.

In his father's will his father states that the $20000 left to Charles will revert to his younger brother when the latter becomes 25 years old, which is four years hence, unless Charles reappears and reconciles himself with the family. Nothing has been heard of him since he left.

LADD-BROWN WINS PALMER OIL WAR

The Local Faction Are Defeated by a Narrow Margin of Votes

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 21—The bitterly contested legal battle for control of the Palmer Oil Company, operating in the Santa Maria field, has been won by the Ladd-Brown faction. Control, with the exception of a transfer of a small holding of shares, was equally divided between the Portland holders and a syndicate headed by William G Henshaw of this city and J C Kemp Van Ee.

After exhausting all legal barriers the election of directors was proceeded with at the meeting yesterday.

The Ladd-Brown group voted 482,500 shares against the 474,443 shares cast by Henshaw's support.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following officers and directors were elected: President, Frank L Browne, vice-president, Lewis A Hilborn, secretary, H C Stratton, J C Kemp Van Ee and Victor Enginger. The last two represented the Henshaw faction.

Among those present at the election were W A Grubb, C B Simmons, H M Brittan, H J Benedick, M D Darlington, Tyler Henshaw, W D Crane, George E Drown, E E Henderson and R R Moody.

CATHOLIC LADIES MET IN COUNCIL

Important Changes in Organic Law of the Aid Society

The annual grand council of the Catholic Ladies Aid Society which convened this morning in Del Mar, Santa Cruz, was attended by a delegation of members from the various branches of Alameda county. The Oakland representatives are Mrs James McAllister and Mrs George Clark are delegates from Branch No 1 located in St Mary's parish with Mrs Ablett Smith and Mrs James Feneran as alternates. In addition to these the following will also attend from No 1: Past grand president Miss Mary Carr, grand vice president Miss Mary Lambert and grand director Mrs W T Morton.

Branch No 25 located in Sacred Heart parish will be represented by Mrs McCarthy and Mrs John Donovan as delegates and Miss Maude Waters and Mrs Somers as alternates. Other representatives of this branch will be President Mrs Don Campbell and past president Miss Sarah Cooper.

Branch 37 of St Anthony's parish will be represented by Mrs. Russell Fitton, Mrs Burns, Mrs H S Knapp and Mrs Carroll.

VITAL TOPICS

One of the vital topics for discussion will be the consideration and adoption of a new constitution. It has been talked over by the members in the branches throughout the county and it is expected that it will meet with some opposition by a faction of delegates who will, it is believed, disagree on the portion of the constitution which proposes doing away altogether with the social end of the organization and making it solely a charitable society. The question of past presidents having the right to vote in conventions will also be met with a degree of opposition it is stated.

The election of officers will also be an interesting issue in the council.

HUNTER ASSAILED BY FURIOUS BUCK

Sangninary Battle Waged Between Two Men and a Deer

SAN BERNARDINO, Sept 21—A lucky stroke with a hunting knife which severed the jugular of an infuriated deer which tried to stamp them to death with its delicate but sharp hoofs was all that saved the lives of Charles Wilson and Charles Grimes, hunters from Bear Valley, according to the story they told today. They showed numerous cuts and bruises on their own bodies and the fatal wound in the neck of the deer to support their marvelous tale.

The battle occurred in Fawn Skin Canyon yesterday. Wilson shot the deer and both rushed up to the fallen game believing it dead. But they were surprised as they bent over the carcass when the buck leaped to its feet and rearing tried to paw both hunters to the ground. Long they fought, the men slashing with their knives, the deer trying to lay open its foes with its razor-like hoofs.

Suddenly, Wilson says, Grimes drove his knife into the neck of the buck ending the battle. The clothing of the men was torn into shreds.

DIVORCED MEN AND ACTORS BARRED AS PROBABLE HUSBANDS

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—The will of Ellen M. Hennessey, widow of former Fire Commissioner James S Hennessey, leaves a one-third interest in her $500,000 estate to her 12-year-old granddaughter, Catherine Bradley Bigelow, provided that at no time shall she marry a divorced man or actor.

If the girl does marry a divorced man or actor, she shall forfeit her interest in the estate, according to the will, and her portion shall revert to Mr. Hennessey's son J Forbes Hennessey, and a daughter, Ellen Mary Parker.

FIRES SHOT AT HIS DIVORCED WIFE

James Tobey Enraged When She Refuses to Open Door, Draws Pistol

POLICE HAVE WARRANT FOR ACCUSED'S ARREST

Woman Swears to Complaint Against Former Spouse, Charging Malicious Mischief

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 21—Angered because his divorced wife refused to have anything further to do with him and would not open the door to receive him at her apartments 1365 Ellis street James A Tobey fired a shot through the panel at Mrs Winifred Tobey this morning. Tobey is third officer on the transport Thomas and the police of the Harbor station armed with warrants for his arrest for malicious mischief and discharging firearms within the city limits, are now scouring the waterfront for him.

The Tobeys have been separated for some time and this morning when the wife beheld her former husband coming up the stairs she locked herself in the parlor. He entered the hall door with a latch key and demanded admittance.

WIFE FALLS IN FAINT

"Open the door, or I'll shoot," he cried. Mrs Tobey refused and true to his word Tobey fired. The bullet nearly struck the woman. It lodged itself in the wall just as Mrs Tobey, unable to bear the strain, fell in a faint on the floor.

By the time Officer Carey arrived Tobey was nowhere in sight and later Mrs Tobey swore to complaints against her former spouse.

SPECIAL OFFICERS ARE UNDER BAN

Fail to Report Tragedy at Chutes and Brought to Bar

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 21—Just two days behind time a report dated September 18, but received late last night, was filed by Special Officers Maier and Roth regarding the accident at the Chutes in which pretty Ethel Bevell was killed and J J Haviside Jr seriously injured. The final receipt of the report will not save the officers in question from standing trial for neglect of duty, however, and this morning Captain Gleason filed charges against them before the Police Commissioners. This was done by order of Chief of Police Cook who intends that the special officers shall comply with all the rules of regular policemen whose privileges they largely enjoy.

CHINESE ACCUSED OF FORGING SIGNATURE

A Chinese forger of an American signature is the reputation which is given to a celestial named Chin Yin, who is in custody in San Francisco but who will be brought to the jail in this city before the close of the day.

The forgery was that of the name of H F Dunbar and was committed on a check for $100 which was drawn on the Bank of San Francisco.

Chin Yin brought the spurious piece of paper to this city and succeeded in passing it upon a diminutive Chinese tailoress named Moy Toy Ying. He ordered the woman to sew some buttons on his clothes and do other work and after the order had been carried out he handed the little woman the check. The labor cost five dollars and because of the plausible manner in which Chin Yin had conducted the negotiations the woman accepted the paper without hesitation and gave $95 in change. The next day she was undeceived. The check was taken to the bank and was pronounced worthless.

The transaction took place on the 15th of last March and in the meantime lynx eyed celestials have been on the lookout for the forger. They succeeded in locating him across the bay yesterday and the warrant issued today by District Attorney Decoto will land him here for trial.

SUSPECT HELD IN JAIL ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Beaten and Choked Almost on Own Doorstep by Fiend

PITIFUL CRIES FOR HELP BRINGS HUSBAND

Victim Is Confined at Her Home Under Care of Physician

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 21—Followed almost to her own doorstep by a man whom she had previously believed to be her friend, but whom, if her allegations are true, was a veritable wolf in sheep's clothing Mrs. Louis Wagner was knocked down, choked, beaten and feloniously assaulted by Albert McWilliams, a harness maker, at a late hour last night.

Her piteous calls for help and her screams, which rent the air finally attracted the attention of her husband who was sitting reading in the front room of their home and coming to the rescue a moment too late to prevent the outrage, he fired a shot at McWilliams who disappeared in the darkness and climbed several fences in his efforts to escape.

McWilliams was taken into custody today by Detectives Callahan and Tobin of the Potrero station, and charged with the crime.

WIFE OF WEALTHY MAN.

Mrs Wagner is the wife of Louis Wagner, a prominent wholesale butcher of the Potrero district and a wealthy man. He and his wife reside at 1295 Seventh avenue south and they have known McWilliams, who is but twenty-three years old for a long time past.

Last night about 8 30 Mrs Wagner visited a store some blocks from her home and met McWilliams there. Her return to the house was through a lonely neighborhood with houses blocks apart, and after she had gone a little way she was conscious of being followed. She did not know until he spoke who her pursuer was, but when about two hundred feet from her residence he jumped upon her, clutched his fingers round her throat and dragged her into a vacant lot.

PITIFUL CRIES FOR HELP.

He threw her to the ground and assaulted her, disregarding her piteous cries for mercy and totally unmindful of the fact that she was continually yelling for aid. Save for her own home there was no house within calling distance but finally Mr Wagner heard her and grasping his revolver hurried to the rescue. He could have pursued and caught up with his wife's assailant but contented himself with firing after him owing to the fact that Mrs. Wagner was unconscious and it required all of his strength to get her to the house.

A physician was called and she has been confined to her bed in a nervous and hysterical condition since the occurrence. She is forty years old.

ELMHURST ASKS UNION WITH OAKLAND

Citizens Oppose Movement to Be Annexed With Melrose to Alameda

ENCINAL CITY BACKERS HOLD RALLY MEETING

Mayor Pratt of Fruitvale Favors Project of Amalgamation With Isle City

ALAMEDA, Sept. 21. — The Alameda-Fruitvale-Melrose annexation enthusiasts who have inaugurated a campaign to form a united city of Alameda and that territory known as Brooklyn township "outside", were given a slight reverse last night at a mass meeting when a delegation of citizens from Elmhurst expressed the opinion that if Elmhurst is included in the territory to be annexed, the project will be lost to Alameda.

"Elmhurst wants a five cent fare," declared J. J. Roggens, president of the Elmhurst board of trade, "and in event that matter comes to an election to join Oakland, the electors of Elmhurst and contiguous territory will vote overwhelmingly for the project."

ELMHURST IS DROPPED.

So the local supporters of the movement have decided to leave Elmhurst out of the movement. They will go for Fruitvale and Melrose.

Meantime the campaign committee which was organized last night is busy pouring over authorities in an attempt to discover the legal status of the position taken by Alameda in declaring their intention to call an election after Oakland, and to hold that election before the neighbor city.

But the meeting last night was enthusiastic. According to the speeches the only section of the affected district which is causing any worry at all is Alameda itself. Out of an attendance of more tha n200 at the meeting, less than fifty were Alamedans.

Councilman William Hammond Jr., E. K. Taylor, Assistant Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, and Attorney E. L. Geary spoke in favor of the project.

ANNEXATION LOGICAL COURSE.

Dr. F. W. D'Evelyn, as president of the Chamber of Commerce under whose auspices the meeting was held, said that annexation on the part of Alameda was the only logical course to be pursued.

Councilman Hammond spoke as follows: "The people of Alameda should wake up. After Oakland has put through this election for the purpose of annexing Fruitvale and Melrose, it will be impossible for this city to do other than combine with Oakland. If Oakland annexes Fruitvale and Melrose, the burden of expense of the county government will have to be borne by Alameda and Berkeley. Our tax rate will be exorbitant and people will not come here to live.

"We want state laws that can be applied to municipal government and with the influence that Alameda, Fruitvale and Melrose will have, we can put these laws through. There is no reason, either why our tax rate should not be lower. I a mheartily in favor of the movement for annexation. I want to see the city of Alameda rival Oakland."

E. K. Taylor said: "So often has Alameda been invited to be swallowed up by some contiguous city that the people of this city have become calloused to the agitation always arising. A short time ago, we had a marriage proposal from San Francisco, and now Oakland is anxious to take us under her marital care. This is the first time I have ever sat ir a meeting and heard residents of a territory ask to come into Alameda, and I want to say that annexation will be for the interests of both.

DO NOT WANT OAKLAND.

"We will not unite with Oakland. I am unalterably opposed to this step, but both Alameda and Fruitvale would save money by anexation. You people of Fruitvale and Melrose would save 40 per cent of your taxes, while Alameda would save 20 per cent."

E. H. Marwedel lauded the progress made by the city of Alameda and praised its government, which he characterized as ready-made and up-to-date.

W. H. L. Haynes spoke as follows: "A great deal has been accomplished by the Mayor and City Council of Alameda in an unostentatious way. Their management of the government of the city is excellent, and it is not a surprise to us that Fruitvale and Melrose should want to join with us. The territory outside will have a larger vote than the city of Alameda, but we can go to the people of the district as they have often come to us in the past. Their progress is evidenced by their splendid schools.

"We can't exist more than five years without being swallowed up by some larger city and losing our identity. The only remedy for us is expansion."

FRUITVALE MAYOR SPEAKS.

C. H. S. Pratt, Mayor of Fruitvale, said:

"The pot is boiling in our district. We want you to take us in, but we don't want to be swallowed by Oakland. That city wants our taxes. We'll not out vote you; we will campaign with you. We are enterprising hustlers, men who own their own homes and who will work for the interests of both Alameda and their own district.

"The people of Fruitvale have always stood with Alameda on public matters of legislation. Our politicians have stood in with each other at conventions. They have co-operated and worked for the interests of both.

"If the city of Oakland annexes us, Alameda will be hemmed in on all sides. Annexation of Fruitvale and Melrose is a matter of self-preservation. I am in favor of merging the territory to prevent a catastrophe."

J. F. Forbes expressed the only dissenting voice when he asked why the people of this outlying district were so afraid of being swallowed up by Oakland when Alameda had withstood annexation by that city for so long. E. H. Marwedel stated that Alameda was an incorporated city and could oppose the measure, while Brooklyn Township outside was not incorporated and had no representation.

Philip Riley of Elmhurst, E. A. Freeman of Fruitvale, George Ingraham of Melrose, J. J. Roggen of Elmhurst and Rafael J. Silva of Fruitvale theorized on the issue and divulged some interesting facts in connection with annexation, which they contended was the only advisable movement to be made at the present time.

E. A. Freeman compared the charters of Oakland and Alameda to the advantage of the latter, which he characterized as up-to-date and modern in every particular.

FILIPINO BAND IS EAGERLY AWAITED

Famous Island Organization to Play in Hearst Greek Theater October 2

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—Much interest has been manifested in this city by the devotees of good music in the announcement that the Philippine constabulary band will give two open air concerts, afternoon and evening, in the Hearst Greek Theater, October 2. The band, whose numerical strength is 85, has been in this country since the first part of February and has given many concerts throughout the east. It is now on its way back to the Philippine Islands.

The band was organized when President Taft was military governor of the islands and it is a military organization supported by the government. It has been carefully trained and, shortly after its formation, was placed under the direction of Walter H. Loving, a negro, who is a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music. Loving was given a captain's commission by Mr. Taft. Under Loving's direction the band has advanced until today it is considered by many to be second to none.

Each member of the organization plays at least two different instruments so they can entertain either as a symphony orchestra or a military band. Five years ago at the St. Louis Exposition this band won the grand prize over Sousa's, the Mexican National and the band of the British Grenadier Guards. The band came here this year especially to participate in the inauguration of President Taft.

FAIR IN AID OF ELMHURST CHURCH

Tastefully Decorated Booths and Prizes--Father Kiley to Open Fair

ELMHURST, Sept. 21.—Elaborate preparations have been made by the arrangement committee for the festival and fair which will open Friday, the 24th instant, in the church of Saint Louis De Bertrand in Elmhurst.

The prize and curio booths have been erected inside the church and all is in readiness for the word to open in a blaze of glory on Friday night.

The festival is for the benefit of the building fund of the newly erected and handsome edifice, and the parishoners expect to realize a handsome sum by their efforts.

The booths have been tastefully decorated and prizes upon prizes are heaped upon the counters. The curio booth in charge of Mrs. H. Mueller will be one of the great attractions, as Indian relics many years old can be seen at this booth.

BEAUTIFUL BOOTHS.

The prize booth is situated in the center of the church, and here one may take a chance on winning valuable prizes, all the way from a Jersey cow to a handsome set of painted china dishes. Many of these prizes were realized by the efforts of Mrs. Moriarity, who is taking a most prominent part in the festival.

The Reverend Father Kiley will open the fair Friday night, and will lend his efforts to those of his parishoners. The last two nights of the fair will be given over to the parishoners of Melrose, the the parishoners of Elmhurst signifying a willingness to aid the church at Melrose.

Admission to the festival will be free and all are invited to partake of the hospitality of the festival reception committee.

AUTO COLLIDES WITH YOUNG WOMAN'S BUGGY

HAYWARD, Sept. 22.—An automobile driven by Francis Stormer of San Jose collided with a buggy driven by Manuel Castro yesterday afternoon and broke the front wheel of the buggy off, also damaging the body of the buggy. The lights of the auto were broken but no further damage was done the heavy machine.

Luckily the horse was not a fractious one, and the driver was able to control him and prevent a runaway.

Contrary to the teaming rules, the motorist agreed to pay for the damage done the rig and tendered a ten dollar bill to Castro who quickly accepted it and called the matter squared.

The girl who is quick to find fault is very apt to get left at the post in the matrimonial race.

ART EXHIBIT ON IN OLD HIGH SCHOOL

Formal Opening of New Gallery by the Berkeley Art Association

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—With an excellent display of pictures the Berkeley Art Association formally opened its new gallery in the old Commercial high school last evening. The opening was for members only and proved an auspicious one. The exhibit featured for the first month consists of Japanese prints, brocades and curios and last night Professor William Dallam Armes gave an intesting talk on "Japanese Art."

The association has only just obtained a lease on a portion of the old high school building and proposes to maintain it as a permanent art gallery where exhibitions will be held from time to time. Every member, of which there are several hundred, is entitled to a card of admission, which also admits one guest. A small fee is charged for the general public.

The patronesses are Mrs. Clark Burnham, Mrs. S. I. Fish, Mrs. C. C. Hall, Mrs. F. L. Lipman, Mrs. F. H. Payne, Mrs. Frederick Jewell Laird, Mrs. J. S. Eastman, Mrs. John Garber, Mrs. C. L. Huggins, Mrs. Whitney Palache and Mrs. H. W. Taylor. The officers of the association are C. C. Dakin, president; William Charles Hayes, first vice president; Miss Mabel Weed, second vice persident; Earl H. Webb, treasurer; Miss Mabel Orr, secretary. The board of directors includes Mrs. Elinor Carlisle, Mrs. J. M. Pierce, Mrs. Charlotte Colby, F. F. Connor, C. L. Biedenbach and J. B. Chapman.

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—Mrs. Addie McMillan, the Oakland psychic, has accepted an invitation to address the Berkeley Society for Psychical Research this evening at its regular meeting in the home of Miss Louise Muller, 1709 Milvia street. Mrs. McMillan's subject will be "Clairvoyance and Clair-audience." She has agreed to submit to such "tests" of her ability as the society may demand.

WEBSTER STREET WORK RUSHED BY CONTRACTORS

ALAMEDA, Sept. 21. — The work on the east side of the Webster street roadway is being rushed. The curbing is being installed and the grading will be completed within a few days. The construction company is anxious to complete the improvement work before the rains set in and has placed a large crew of workmen on the job.

The only delay anticipated is that which could be caused by the railroad company in not raising its tracks to the level of the grade made by the construction company.

A sewer is being installed in the roadway and the lumber for the gutter lining has been cut.

Webster street will be improved with standard asphaltum.

MOVING PICTURE WAR IS ON IN BERKELEY

Mothers' Club Name Committee to Investigate the Show Places

FEAR BAD IMPRESSION ON SCHOOL CHILDREN

Want Exhibitions Toned Down or Abolished From the College Town

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—The beginning of a vigorous war on the moving picture theaters of this city was made at a meeting of the Federation of Mothers' Clubs in the Washington school yesterday afternoon when a committee, consisting of Mrs. Battie, Mrs. E. W. Darst and Mrs. Ahern, was instructed to make a rigid investigation of the amusement houses here and report at the next meeting.

The subject was brought up by Mrs. Elinor Carlisle and occupied almost the entire session. The charge was not made that the shows are immoral in any form, but it was asserted that the class of pictures shown consist largely of train robberies, murders, burglaries and other forms of crime. In a measure these are inflammatory to the juvenile mind, the mothers insist, and tend to have a bad influence on children.

PATRONIZED BY CHILDREN.

Mrs. Carlisle said that the shows are largely patronized by children of school age and for this reason the character of the exhibitions should be carefully looked into and objectionable features eliminated. The suggestion met with instant approval and resulted in the committee being appointed.

The federation is determined to make Berkeley a clean city, morally, especially among the children. It was with this and in view that they obtained the enactment of an ordinance prohibiting the sale of tobacco in any form to boys under 18 years of age. Now they are after the moving picture show and its ultimate fate depends on the report of the committee.

MEMBERS DETERMINED.

The members of the federation say they wish first to be absolutely sure that the shows now being given are harmful to the children and when satisfied as to this, they will take stringent measures, if necessary. They hope, however, to remove the alleged disagreeable features without being compelled to seek the abolition of the playhouses, but they are determined on improvement even at the cost of banishing all amusement places.

CRAWLS UNDER AN AUTO; BREAKS LEG

Alamedan Seriously Injured at Tahoe Trying to Extricate Machine

ALAMEDA, Sept. 21. — An accident that might have proved fatal befell Jonathan Tibbitts of 1246 St. Charles street, Friday, at Tahoe. Tibbitts and his father were driving on one of the mountain roads near Tallac in an automobile, when it went over a small embankment and lodged in the sand below. Both occupants were thrown from the machine, but escaped without serious injury, and it was while attempting to push the car out of the sand that young Tibbitts fell underneath the wheels which went over his body.

His right leg was broken by the wheel which passed over his body and he was hastily removed to the Tavern in a special boat procured by his father, and taken home on the night train.

Tibbitts will be confined to his home for about six weeks. He was spending a vacation at Tahoe when the accident happened.

That both father and son were not hurt by the car going over the embankment is considered remarkable by them. Tibbitts was underneath the car trying to extricate it from the sand when his leg was broken by the wheel.

SOPHOMORES ARRANGE FOR FIRST INFORMAL

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—The Sophomore informal committee met yesterday afternoon and made the preliminary arrangements for the 1912 dance, which will be held in Hearst Hall Thursday evening, September 30.

The dance will be strictly informal and no evening clothes will be permitted on the floor. According to the usual custom, there will be no attempt at decoration, which will make it possible to pay more attention to getting good music.

The committee in charge are: R. R. Weber, chairman; J. A. Arnold, S. E. Wheeler, W. P. Stanton, K. C. White, J. F. Pollard, Miss Irene O'Connor, Miss Emelie Harrold, Miss Blanche de Large, Miss Irene Flanagan and Miss Emeline Parsons. H. G. Gabbert will be the floor manager. The committee will hold another meeting this evening at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

WEST BERKELEYAN HELD FOR ALLEGED BURGLARY

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—Antone Williams, of West Berkeley, charged with burglarizing Joe Smith's creamery at 842 University avenue, West Berkeley, the night of September 12, was held to answer to the Superior Court this morning and his bond fixed at $1,000. He is accused of breaking into the place and taking a revolver and $5 from the cash register. The testimony of all witnesses indicated that Williams was intoxicated at the time of the burglary. He had his preliminary hearing before Justice Edgar this morning.

NEW JAIL FOR VALLEJO.

VALLEJO, Sept. 21. — The Solano county board of supervisors decided today to impose a direct tax of twenty cents cents on each $100 to scure the $50,000 necessary for the construction of a branch county jail in this city. The action of the board followed the defeat of a proposition to add the necessary amount to the $250,000 bonds voted for a new court house at Fairfield. The tax rate in the county will be $1.98.

OUT-OF-DOORS SCHOOL ROOMS LATEST DESIRE

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—A strong plea for out-of-doors schoolrooms was made yesterday by Dr. E. B. Hoag, the recently appointed director of physical instruction in the schools, at the meeting of the Federation of Mothers' clubs in the Washington school. He said that the health of a community is largely governed by the health of the school children, and drew attention to the success of the latest open-air treatment for tuberculosis patients. He said it was high time to get away from the polar region methods now in vogue and have schoolrooms that are practically out of doors. His remarks made a strong impression, and the federation plans to give it extended consideration.

DECOTO, Sept. 21.—Miss Elma Ingalls was the week end visitor of the Hawleys in the Alviso district.

A party of town people attended the circus in San Jose on Tuesday, and as some of the party got separated in the crowd, missing the last train, they were obliged to come home in an automobile.

The Ladies' Guild held their meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Searles on Wednesday afternoon, sewing on work for Mrs. Crane.

Churchgoers had the pleasure of listening to Rev. Meserve on Sunday morning for the first time within a year.

Frank Luna had the misfortune to cut two fingers to the bone on Friday morning while slicing ham.

Mrs. Fred Meyers gave a luncheon on Saturday afternoon at her home, complimentary to her sisters, Mesdames Haley and Hurlbert of Alameda. The guests were limited to the former schoolmates of the two young matrons, and the afternoon was passed very pleasantly, relating the reminiscences of school days.

The partnership in the butcher business existing between Luna and Mellow has been dissolved, the former now being sole proprietor.

Miss Elma Ingalls entertained the Ladies' Bridge Club on Monday evening, Miss Mary Jackson securing the prize.

The Sequoia Lodge of Oakland arrived in Decoto in a special train on Friday afternoon and repaired to the Masonic Home, where they visited among the residents until the supper hour. It is customary for the lodge members to furnish their own refreshments and after the Home people dine the ladies of the visiting party reset and spread the tables with the dainties of the season and with confections for the children and ice cream for the residents and help. The evening was devoted to an entertainment of moving pictures and musical selections, to which all were cordially invited. After the entertainment Superintendent and Mrs. Martin extended "open house" to the visitors and assisted in every way possible to make the visit a pleasant one for both the residents and visiting people.

On Friday the children of the Masonic Home departed in a special car for their future home in East San Gabriel. At the depot was a large party of schoolmates and friends who had gathered to say farewell. The children were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. M. Noble, matron of the Decoto Home; Miss J. Waddell, the girls' attendant; Dr. Stone of Napa, and Judge Wells of Oakland. The girls carried their mandolins to play on the train in the evening, while the boys were attentive to a mascot cat they found wandering the streets in an interior town this summer while away on their concert tour. Another who received a good share of attention was "Rolly," a large shepherd dog, which has been the constant companion of the children for years, always going to school with them in the morning, marching in the school room at the tap of drum, and waiting until the dismissal in the evening. When the arrangements were being made to take the children to the depot, Rolly suspected a change of some kind, and was at the station in plenty of time to answer the roll call for the home in Southern California.

RECALL FACES MEMBERS OF COUNCIL

North Berkeley Citizens In Arms Over Extension Granted Quarry

DELEGATION BOLTS FROM MEETING OF CITY SOLONS

Commissioners Accused of Being Tools for the Allied Interests

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—The City Council of this city decided this morning to grant the Spring Construction Company an extension of their permit to operate the quarry in North Berkeley, and the citizens of that section are highly indignant. Some forty or fifty residents who were present at the council meeting to hear the decision, bolted from the room shortly after Mayor Hodghead began reading the decision, and already there is a strong sentiment in favor of circulating a petition for the recall of the council.

The extension granted this morning allows the company to operate in the months of October and November of this year, and May, June, July and August of next year. The granting of this extension has been bitterly fought by almost all the residents in the vicinity of the quarry for the last two weeks. After the decision this morning the indignant residents severely condemned the "reform" administration as being the tools of the allied realty interests in North Berkeley.

The present humor of the people affected is such that there seems but little doubt that a petition will be circulated within the next few days demanding the recall of certain city officials under the clause in the new charter which permits such action after any official has been in office three months. The present administration has been in for more than that length of time.

"You will sell only to members?" asked Elliott.

"Cash or tags for drinks?" queried Stiefvater.

"On tags, sir. Then when they get their money they will pay up," explained the president.

"Humph," exclaimed Chairman Bose. "And what will you do with all the money?" he asked as he slyly winked at Elliott.

"If there is any it will go into the club treasury," replied the head of the organization.

The Dunbar Club got its exemption.

STANFORD STUDENT HAS DISAPPEARED

Another Mystery Such as Made a Sensation Two Years Ago

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 21.—With an uncanny coincidence of circumstance recalling the disappearance of a Stanford student two years ago, Harry Hooker, ward of J. D. Hooker, one of the wealthy men of Los Angeles, has dropped from sight.

Hooker, who is a high school graduate, came to Stanford nearly a month ago to take the entrance examinations to the university. He failed.

Young Hooker, after his arrival in Stanford, took lodgings at the boarding house of Mrs. A. C. Ramsay, 20 Lassen street, opposite the college campus. After learning of his failure to pass his examinations he discussed his lack of success with Paul Ogilvie, a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. Ogilvie said today that Hooker was despondent, but did not seem to be in such a desperate frame of mind as to give support to the theory that he had committed suicide.

To R. W. Poindexter of Lucina Hall Hooker said that he was going to Berkeley to visit friends. Nothing more was seen of him. He gave no notice of his departure to Mrs. Ramsay.

The fact that he left all his clothing and personal belongings in his room has given chief grounds for fear that he has met with some mishap. It is thought by those who knew Hooker that he had little money with him, probably not enough to take him far away.

MR. BALLINGER IS HIGHLY EXTOLLED

Hitchcock's Eulogy of Him Causes the Wildest Cheering

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 21.—Speaking at the Chamber of Commerce last night, Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock brought the guests cheering to their feet by an eulogy of Secretary of the Interior Richard A. Ballinger. "Richard Ballinger's character is as unsullied as the snow of your mountain ranges," he declared, with great earnestness.

"As well attempt to shake the foundations of the great Mount Rainier as to assail the character of the secretary. I am proud of the representation that the city of Seattle has in the cabinet. When it came time for this city to offer timber for the cabinet the right man was here, a man who had been mayor of your city, high in his profession, a man whose character for square dealing was above question. Seattle never doubted what the verdict would be and it was unmistakably given."

FRAYNE-POWELL MATCH MAY BE POSTPONED

JOHNNIE FRAYNE, STRICKEN WITH RHEUMATISM, MUST REST

Boxers Still Rowing Over Training Quarters---Jim Coffroth Wants to Put Johnson-Ketchel Bout Over Until Portola Week

By EDDIE SMITH.

TROUBLES with the Frayne-Powell match have started early. Now that the fighters are fussing over the training quarters, with the matter still unsettled, a new trouble has sprung up which will in all probability cause a postponement. The task of getting these young men together has not been an easy one by any means, and when it was finally accomplished the promoter heaved a sigh of relief, believing that his hard labor had ended. The worry has just started, however, for in addition to quarreling over the possession of Joe Millett's training quarters, it developed last night that Frayne had a slight attack of rheumatism that might necessitate delay from October 5 to the 8th or 15th. Frayne was taken with this same ailment while in the East, and was unable to fight for several months, but in this case it is said that the attack is very slight and that it will leave him in a very few days. If Frayne is troubled with rheumatism he should be the first one to move from Millett's and he should feel lucky of the chance given him to do so.

MILLETT'S NO PLACE FOR FRAYNE.

Millett's place is excellent when conditions are favorable and a man does not have to make a weight that will tear him down to his lowest notch, but in the case of a fighter getting down very low or a man with the slightest indication of rheumatism there could be no worse place. Almost every evening the cold, damp trade winds blow in from the ocean across that section of the county where Millett's is located, and very often the fog settles there in one big, thick cloud, and how any person can figure that sort of thing is good for a man with even the slightest attack of rheumatism is more than the writer can explain. The place for Johnny Frayne, if he has any such trouble, is over on this side of the bay or at Shannon's place at San Rafael. Warm weather is what Frayne wants and not fog and wind. At any rate, Charlie Lecari has delegated his club physician, Dr. C. L. Jones, to the task of bringing the fighter about in time for the bout, and if within a few days Jones says that Frayne is able to fight on October 5 that will be the date set by the club, but in case a postponement is necessary, the club management will select either of the alternate dates.

FIGHTERS POST MONEY.

Each of the fighters have posted $500 with the official stakeholder, John T. Clark, and the forfeits of all the principals now being up, the match is as good as on, providing the club physician does not say that Frayne will be unable to keep his engagement. Frayne should be hastened away from the cold climate of Colma, however, to some warmer place, and with the time ahead in which to do the work Frayne should take a week at the springs, where he could put in a week at preliminary exercise. The contest with Powell is the most important one of either man's career, and each should see to it that their condition is the best. The trouble over the training camp does not come about so much through the fact that Millett's is the best place on earth to train, but through the fact that so many winners have come from there during the past year. The boxers are very superstitious.

BRITT DUE TOMORROW.

Willie Britt, tasting severe criticism for the first time in his career, will arrive in San Francisco some time tomorrow with his fighter, Stanley Ketchel, and they will immediately go to Joe Millett's training quarters, where the Michigan Lion will do his training for the Jack Johnson fight. Johnson, Britt and Coffroth will get together as soon as the arrival of the middle-weight, and Coffroth will try to show the heavy-weight where he can do better by accepting a postponement to October 23. Coffroth is of the opinion that October 23 will be a better day, owing to the fact that many thousand visitors will be in San Francisco during the Portola celebration, and besides that the 23d is on a Saturday, while the new holiday—Discovery Day—falls on a Tuesday, and whether or not the day will be universally observed is problematical. Johnson does not seem at all pleased with the idea of changing the date for the meeting, and has put forth serious objections—unless he can be shown where he is to benefit by the delay. Jack has started training with a will, and expects to be fit for the fight of his life when he starts against the smaller white man, and the fact that he has started so vigorously is an indication that at this time he has little thought of a postponement.

SID HESTER'S CARD.

Sid Hester of the Mission Athletic Club will try to stage three men that he has in mind for his card next month. The three bouts he has in mind are Abe Attell vs. Tommy O'Toole, Packey McFarland vs. Bronson and Monte Attell vs. Johnnie Coulon. It would seem that the best bout of the three would be the McFarland-Bronson contest. The men fought twenty fast rounds to a draw at New Orleans the other evening, and any fighter who is able to go twenty rounds to a draw with McFarland is some fighter. Hester is out for a good attraction, and he will secure it if necessary, but he will not give most of the money that comes in at the door for the bout, and this may keep him from securing either Abe Attell or Packey McFarland, for both of these men are of the sort who are not afraid to ask for everything in sight.

ALAMEDA BOXING SHOW.

With the arrival of Johnnie O'Keefe in good shape after his winning fight with Billy Morris at Coalinga, the Alameda Athletic Club management feel that everything is now in readiness for the first big boxing show that the island city has ever had. The ring has been built and the seats placed around it in such a manner that every person in the house will have a good view of the scrappers. The card is an excellent one, consisting of two six and two ten round contests, and the attendance should be good. The main events are to be supplied by Johnnie O'Keefe vs. Fred Brooks and Henry Dell vs. Jockey Bennett, while the preliminaries will be between Freddie Couture vs. Willie Canole and Eddie Logan vs. Jim Felix.

FRED BROOKS AND HARRY DELL,
Two of the principals in the main events at the Alameda Athletic Club tomorrow night.

BARBER SHOP BULL

(By RINGSIDE KELLY.)

Have you ever sat and pondered
When in a barber shop you wandered
And the barber filled your eyes and ears with soap,
In ten minutes you'll get knowledge
You could never learn in college,
As he slips you all the latest sporting dope?

How Johnson had him going
Or Kaufman made a showing—
He'll dope you out the winner for each race;
Or perhaps it's near election,
Then you'll find that his selection
Is bound to be the right man for the place.

If you're feeling bad and ailing
He can cure you, never failing—
He's got the doctor skinned a thousand ways.
The north pole's not a mystery,
Why to him it's ancient history—
He's had a chip before his shop for days.

Yes, the barber is a wonder,
Never known to make a blunder,
Anything you ask him he is there.
He's a walking dictionary,
And he'll tell you in a hurry
Anything you ask while in the chair.

Reliance Plays Olympic In Benefit Game Sunday

The Reliance baseball team is training hard for its game with the Olympic club at Freeman's Park, Sunday, September 26, for the benefit of the building fund of St. Augustine's church, Berkeley. Great rivalry exists between these clubs, and they have not met on the baseball field for years. This game is the second in an elimination contest for a trophy to be presented by the church. The first game was between the mechanics of the United Railroads and Stanford parlor, the former winning in a very exciting and close game. The winners of the Olympic-Reliance game will play the rubber for the trophy on a date to be set later.

SIX-DAY BICYCLE RACE.—KANSAS CITY, Sept. 21.—At the end of the first day's grind in the six-day, eight hours a day bicycle race in Convention Hall here last night, Williams and Demora led their eight companions by margins of from 1 lap to over 12 miles. The leaders had covered 181 miles and 1 lap.

BUSY TURF SEASON.—NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—From now until the legal closing of the racing season, November 15, four turf meetings are scheduled on Metropolitan tracks, with a very interesting meeting at Pimlico, Baltimore, overlapping. It is probable that Pimlico will attract some of the very best horses, including several stars in S. C. Hildreth's string, R. L. Wilson's Olambala and J. P. Respess' Wintergreen. For the valuable races Pimlico will make stronger appeal to the horsemen because of the open betting at the Baltimore course.

MOTORCYCLE GRIND.—NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—What promises to be the greatest event in the history of the motorcycle industry this year is to take place at the Brighton beach motordrome at Coney Island, N. Y., week of September 26. The event will be a six days' grind for motorcycles, the teams being made up of three riders each, one rider being on the track at a time, the other two men being used as relief.

Heeseman Walkovers Win From Seminoles, 6 to 2

Before a large gathering, the Heeseman Walkovers defeated the Seminoles, Sunday, at Grove street park, in the last game of their series. The contest was fast from start to finish and was won by the superior fielding and base running of the Walkovers.

The main features of the game was the work of both batteries, but Schamori of the Heesemans certainly had a few tricks that his opponents were not wise to, and he caught four of them trying to steal bases. He is also credited with twelve strike outs and allowed only six hits. Catcher Dickins, although injured several times, played a great game.

ST. MARY'S PLAYS U. C. TOMORROW

Picked California Team to Play Phoenix Tossers

FOR the second time within a week when they meet tomorrow afternoon the Freshmen Rugby fifteen and the St. Mary's college football team will be opposed to each other. Last Saturday a strenuous contest was held on the California campus, the score at the end of the second half being 13 to 3 in favor of the "Babies."

The exhibition proved conclusively that the collegians are strong contenders and considering the difference in size played a splendid game. Since Saturday the St. Mary's boys have been training faithfully under Coach Stewart and have shown an immense improvement in their work. Several new faces will be given their first try out and upon their showing depends whether they will take part in the intercollegiate games with Santa Clara college.

The game tomorrow will be on the college grounds and will be called at 3:30.

EXHIBITION BASEBALL GAMES.

Brother Joseph, well known all over the coast and for years connected with the athletic department of St. Mary's college has about completed all arrangements for a series of games between California players who are now starring in the big leagues and the Phoenix nine and Coast League teams. It is planned to play the contests immediately after the close of the coast season, the proceeds going toward the building and equipment of the St. Mary's college gym. When approached on the subject, Brother Joseph said:

"I have secured the consent of almost all of the players that will be required to come to the coast. Overall, Harry Krause and Frank Arrellanes of the Boston Americans, will do the pitching. Either Frank Chance or Hal Chase will be at first base, while I am almost assured of having the sensational Collins of the Philadelphia Americans, at the second station. Stannage will catch, and will probably be assisted by Jack Bliss of the St. Louis Nationals. Dick Eagan of Cincinnati has been secured for an infield position. I have still to secure a man for third base. Harry Walters, of the Boston Americans; Harry Hooper, of the same club, and one of the three pitchers will play in the outfield.

"Two games will be played with the league teams — one at Recreation Park in San Francisco, and another in Oakland. Following these two games the eastern players will meet the Phoenix team of St. Mary's college in a contest."

TRACK AND FIELD MEET.

A track and field meet under the auspices of the League of the Cross cadets will be held at St. Mary's college, Oakland, Sunday afternoon.

The contending companies are A, B and L of San Francisco and N of St. Mary's parish, Oakland.

The cadets will charge no admission fee, as they intend to make the affair a complimentary offering to their many friends on both sides of the bay. The members of the Hibernia rifles, with whom the League of the Cross is soon to hold a competitive drill, are invited to be present Sunday afternoon. The events will begin at 2 o'clock.

IKE BUTLER JOINS ANGELS.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 21.—Ike Butler, who until a few days ago was manager of the Tacoma team in the Northwestern League, has left for Los Angeles to join the Pacific Coast League team. Butler made good as manager of a tail-end team, but was released at his own request when Cliff Blankenship, next year's manager, took charge of the team.

AMATEUR SEASON NOW HALF OVER

Double-Header Sunday at Freeman's and at Grove Park

After seven weeks of as good baseball as any fan could desire to see from kids, the Tribune baseball league enters upon its second half and for next Sunday has arranged for four games that should bring out large crowds. There will be a double header at Freeman's Park, the first contest being immediately after the Oakland-San Francisco exhibition between the Breuners and Rutleys. Both teams have struck their stride and with pitchers Campi and Purdy on the hill top close scores should be the result. Spicer who did the heavy stick work last Sunday for the furniture lads will be seen again behind the bat while Manager Goyhenlex promises an array of formidable batters and snappy fielders.

Following the first game Lehnhardts and Heesemans will rush upon the diamond to prove to the satisfaction of their friends and enemies the strength and merit of each club. The Heesemans vow to give the topnotchers a severe drubbing for the cruel defeat of a fortnight ago but Manager Enders declares he will keep his record of six straight victories unsullied and unstained. In Fernandez and Ackerly he has two of the best twirlers any amateur nine could care to possess. Both have everything a good slab artist should hold in stock and in addition know how to act in critical moments.

GAMES AT GROVE PARK.

There will also be two games at the State League grounds at Fifty-seventh and Grove streets. In the morning at 10:30 the Reliance boys and Tribunes will lock horns and at 2:30 in the afternoon a battle royal will be fought out with the Morans and Zinggs as contenders.

Every effort is being made to strengthen the Reliance Club and by next Sunday Manager Keefer promises to have as good team as any in the league. He has a valuable pitcher in Osequeda as he proved last Sunday. Had the youngster been accorded any kind of support there might now be a different story to the contest with the Morans.

CURED HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLD.

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." Sold at Wishart's drug store, corner Tenth and Washington streets.

We have just received a large invoice of early fall goods which we invite the public to call and inspect. We will certainly be glad to show them whether you wish to buy or not. We are making Suits and Overcoats to order, in the latest styles and at right prices.

Graney Best Sticker In Series Last Week

While Oakland outhit the Portland Ducks in the past week's series, the big swatters of the local team did not come through as frequently as usual and that partially explains why the Northerners copped the series so decisively.

In the seven games of the series, Oakland made 63 safe hits to Portland's 56, their respective team averages for the week being .238 and .222.

"Duffey" Lewis had a bad week, getting only 5 hits out of 26 times up, or an average of .192. Carroll and Maggert did a little better with averages of .258 and .259 respectively, but Cameron only made 4 hits out of 19 times up in the games in which he took part, or an average of .210. Cutshaw also had a bad week with 6 hits out of 31 times up, an average of .193.

The best average of the week among the Oaklanders was obtained by Kelly on account of his obtaining four hits in one game. He poled 7 out of 19 in the games in which he took part, or an average of .368. Claire was next to Kelly as king-pin swatter for the week, getting 7 out of 21, an average of .333.

For Portland, the best hitting was done by John Gladstone Graney, the converted pitcher who is now covering center for the Ducks. Gladstone connected safely 10 times out of 24 for an average of .416. Ote Johnson was hot on Graney's trail with 10 out of 27, an average of .370. Cooney was a good third with 9 out of 30, an average of .300. McCredie was next with 8 out of 28, an average of .285. The other Ducks waddled along far behind, Outfielder Speas averaging only .166, First Baseman Ort, .173 and Shortstop Olson, .193.

Football Work Begins In Western Colleges

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Football practice began at all Western colleges yesterday with good promise of a successful season. While Wisconsin and Michigan mustered only a dozen candidates each, belated arrivals will furnish plenty of material, it is said. Iowa had the largest practice squad, 75 men presenting themselves for various positions. Illinois had 60 prospective players, Pardu 50, Minnesota 40, Indiana 36, Chicago 24, Notre Dame 22 and Northwestern 16.

Athletics Win 3 Out of 4 From Jennings' Tigers

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21.—The great Detroit-Philadelphia series is over. The Athletics took three out of four and are now fifteen points behind the Tigers. Yesterday the score was 4 to 3 in favor of Philadelphia, the game being won by the home team on timely hits and costly errors. Cobb spiked Shortstop Barry, but it was declared to be an accident by all. Barry will be out the balance of the season. Twenty-nine thousand two hundred and seventy-five fans saw the exhibition.

That "Eddie" Perrine was selected as one of the "umpires" for the series is a big feather in his hat. It shows that his great ability as an arbitrator is appreciated as much in the East as it has been in the West. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	4	8	1
Detroit	3	6	1

SOCCER OCTOBER THIRD.

The soccer football season will open October 3 with four games on as many different grounds.

Stanford Freshmen Play Palo Alto High Tomorrow

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 21.—Harry Horton, '08, who played on the Stanford varsity in 1905, joined the rugby squad yesterday and will try out for the fifteen which will meet California in November. Horton has had no experience in rugby, but in the American made a fast, aggressive tackle.

Tomorrow afternoon the Stanford freshman rugby team will clash with Palo Alto High School on the varsity field. The Palo Alto High School has an unusually strong line-up this season. Last Saturday they won from Lowell, 15 to 3, while the freshmen, playing Lowell the Wednesday prior, scored only a 13-to-11 victory.

Stanford University will be represented in the athletic contests of Portola week in San Francisco. Dr. Frank Angell as chairman of the faculty athletic committee has given J. Huston, '10, captain of the varsity boat crew, the right to enter a four-oared barge in the races of the festival.

In order that the track team may make a trip to the conference meet in Chicago next summer, plans are being made by the mandolin and glee clubs to give a joint minstrel show to raise funds.

In an endeavor to learn the attitude of the Stanford students on the question of rowing, Captain H. H. Ashley of the California varsity crew spent Sunday on the campus. He stated that California indorsed the continuance of rowing.

BERKELEY, Sept. 21.—A large tract of land back of the California campus is being leveled for a rifle range for the cadets, and monthly shoots will be held in the near future. Krag-Jorgensen rifles will replace the old Springfields.

Modesto Reds Defeat Sacramento Outlaws

MODESTO, Sept. 21.—The Modesto Reds defeated the Sacramento State League team here yesterday afternoon by the score of 6 to 5. The game was hard fought from the first. NEWMAN, Sept. 21.—With Jordan, the University of California twirler, in the box, and Schwartz, Waithour and Leonhardt in the line-up, Livermore hoped to win Sunday, but the champions slaughtered Jordan's delivery. 'MOTHER-IN-LAW' AGAIN TO FORE

Wm. Thomas of St. Francis Hold Regrets His Was Hasty

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 21 —"Mother-in-law" is given as the cause of the breach in the pleasant relations that have heretofore existed between William Thomas the well known clubman who is vice president of the St Francis Hotel company and the other members of that corporation

His mother-in-law Mrs J H Munday, who is [illegible] years of age was not permitted to violate the strict rule of the hotel that women guests shall not receive men visitors in their rooms

This rule, Mrs Munday thought should not apply to her on account of her great [illegible] and the fact that her son-in-law was vice president of the hotel corporation [illegible] rules are not made to be broken at the St Francis and the lady was not permitted to receive in her apartments last Saturday evening an old time friend and business agent

MUST VISIT IN PARLOR

He was politely informed that he must await her coming in the parlors and despite Mrs Munday's demands that he should [illegible] up to her room instanter, the management was inexorable

Then Mrs Munday became angry and left the hotel in high dudgeon When Mr Thomas heard of it he denounced the hotel employes and angrily offered to sell the [illegible] shares of stock he held in the company

This offer came to the ears of Henry [illegible] Scott and he promptly offered to buy it at prevailing rates Mr Scott has also called a special meeting of the directors for tomorrow and it is likely Mr Thomas will be requested to resign and sell his stock

Now Mr Thomas has recovered from his anger and hopes it will all blow over

MUSKETRY SCHOOL TO GO TO EAST

General Weston Favors Its Removal From Site at Monterey

WASHINGTON Sept 21 —In his annual report, Major General Weston commanding the Department of California renews the recommendation by Major General Funston last year that the school of musketry now at the Presidio of Monterey be transferred to one of the large posts in the middle west This work of the school, he says has been most satisfactory, but it is believed that better results would be obtained by placing it at a more central post It is recommended that the small arms firing regulations be modified so far as they require a commissioned competitor to make a score equal to 5 per cent increase over that of an enlisted member of the team in order to win a medal

EXPERT MARKSMEN.

"We are now" says General Weston, "developing such a class of highly trained marksmen—particularly in this department when enlisted men are offered the opportunity of pursuing the course of thorough instructions in the musketry school—that it is a matter of extreme difficulty for an officer to compete against such a handicap as five per cent increase The record of this year's competition probably will disclose that but a small number of officers have obtained medals and it is therefore recommended that this percentage of increase be changed from five to three"

CITY CHIEFTAINS CONFER ON TAFT

Mayor Mott and Taylor in Session Over President's Coming

Mayor Frank K Mott went to San Francisco shortly before noon for an official conference with Mayor Taylor regarding plans for the entertainment of President Taft during his stay in this vicinity In the morning papers today there was a published account to the effect that the nation's chief executive had definitely settled the question of just who is to be his host at luncheon the day he intends to visit both Oakland and San Francisco, by expressing his preference for the latter

This however is not regarded seriously and it is probable that some agreement will be reached today when the two civic heads meet That Taft is to be lunched while crossing the bay after visiting this city on the revenue cutter Golden Gate, has been decided

Now the momentous question seems to be who shall buy the lunch, Oakland or San Francisco? The fact that it would be a good thing to settle it one way or the other before the party arrives suggests itself and will, it is hoped be arranged

It was learned today through official messages from Washington that Secretary of State Knox will be unable to attend the presidential banquet to be given in San Francisco on the evening of October 5

MOTHER'S FRIEND

EARL ROGERS IS HELD BY COURT

Must Answer to Superior Court for Automobile Trouble of August 16

REDWOOD CITY, Sept 21 —After a long-drawn-out and bitterly contested preliminary examination before Ambrose McSweeney, justice of the peace of South San Francisco, Earl Rogers, counsel for Patrick Calhoun, was held to answer to the Superior Court in this city yesterday afternoon on a charge of resisting an officer The case was an outgrowth of an auto ride

Rogers was represented by William Anderson of Los Angeles former assistant attorney general, Henry M Owens, attorney for the San Francisco Automobile Association and John Sheehan of the United Railroads City Attorney Styles of South San Francisco acted for the people

Rogers was arrested on August 16th, when William Barrington, his chauffeur, who has since met death in an automobile accident, was taken into custody for violating the speed law

Deputy Marshal Kneese testified that Rogers had threatened his life thus

"I'll kill you just as sure as you're standing here! I'll blow the top of your head off! You'll not be the first man I've killed! I'll get you yet and fix you!"

Rogers on the stand said that after Kneese had fired four shots, fearing that the lives of his family and guests were endangered, he shouted

"If you shoot again I'll blow your head off"

The defendant testified that when he uttered the threat he "didn't even have a toothpick, let alone a gun or a pocketknife"

Rogers had Kneese arrested on a charge of exhibiting a deadly weapon

BRAVE WAS CHINK WITH CELT NAME

Defies Burglars and Routs Them By His Shrill Cries for Aid

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 21 —He was a Chinaman and his name was "Murphy" and true to the instinct of the race from which his appellation seems to have been derived he was the means of curbing the covetous desire of three desperate burglars whom he encountered endeavoring to pillage a block of stores on East street at an early hour this morning

The place where the robbers hoped to make the biggest haul was the clothing store of Joseph Harris 2[illegible] East street and they set deliberately about their plans They first climbed on a telegraph pole on Oregon street, stepped out on a roof and were about to force an entrance to Harris place when Murphy who had been watching from his Chinese laundry nearby put his head out of the window and asked them what they wanted

"You shut up or I'll shoot" yelled one of the trio But the Chinese was not daunted and he set up a shrill yell for help which sent the burglars skipping down the slanting roof and ended with a slide down the pole A good description has been furnished the police and Detectives Conlan and Mackey are working on the case The latter believe that the men intended to enter a number of stores all of which are accessible from the roof on Oregon street.

Three Months Wed; Is Granted Divorce

SAN FRANCISCO Sept 21 —"I'd shoot you if I had a gun" declared Mrs Ducche Looman, to John Looman, according to the latter's testimony in a suit for divorce for cruelty in Judge Cabaniss' court today

The couple were married in June of this year and almost immediately the trouble began according to the husband The wife attempted to assault him with a pair of scissors and otherwise abused him on various occasions The decree was granted and other divorces were allowed to Rosea Silva from Joe Silva and Laura E Parker from Joseph Parker

FATHER FAILS TO SUPPORT HIS CHILD

Charles Tafaro, who was the last man known to be in the company of the Baumgarten girl when she disappeared may have to go to jail for failing to support a minor child

Tafaro's wife has made complaint to Deputy District Attorney Decoto that her husband has failed for a long time to provide for their offspring and that she is unable to do what ought to be done by the father

Mr Decoto however did not grant the request of the woman for the arrest of Tafaro on the charge this morning but he will issue a warrant in the event that the man persists in his unfeeling treatment of his wife and child

In such cases Mr Decoto makes it a practice to serve notice on the offending mortal to perform his duty in a proper manner and then in the event that the parent refuses to mend his ways, to have him placed under arrest

This morning therefore Mr Decoto advised Mrs Tafaro to call on Attorney Stetson who is the attorney for Tafaro and notify him of the unfatherly conduct of his client and request the gentleman to support his babe He thought that a request of that character from Mr Stetson would have the desired result In the event that this plan fails, Tafaro will go to jail

At the time the request of Mrs Tafaro was made of the district attorney there was present in the office J Baumgarten the merchant brother of the missing girl who when last seen by members of his family was in the company of Tafaro

One of them struck him in the face felling him to the street The other two then went through his pockets after which all ran off leaving him in a dazed condition The thugs secured only $15 in cash, and after their victim had his wounds dressed he reported the matter at the Harbor Police station

SALES OF STOCK IN WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Sept. 21—President's Taft's utterances yesterday need not be considered very disturbing so far as the railroads are concernd His suggestions are certainly helpful to stockholders The market is not likely to be affected adversely by what was said We look for a somewhat narrow movement.—Harris Winthrop & Co

NEW YORK Sept 21—Gibson says No change in position think stocks in a dangerous position Advances are founded on speculative methods and schemes Would confine operations to sales of St Paul Reading Missouri Pacific Chicago and Alton United States Steel etc on bulges Purchases of industrials should be made only on decided reactions

NEW YORK Sept 21—The stock market started irregular today gains and losses being divided on active dealings National Bank was advanced 1½ and Southern Pacific Wabash preferred Great Northern preferred, International Harvester and North American large fractions Louisville and Nashville declined 1¼ Vulcan Detinning 1 and Union Pacific and Pennsylvania large fractions

The dealings took on a strong tone when Reading shot up within a striking manner Large blocks of the stock were absorbed carrying it up 2¼ to 173¼ another record level St Paul Union Pacific and Southern Pacific were also heavily bought at intervals Prices ran off sharply afterward when profit taking began Vulcan Detinning broke 4 points below yesterday's close and Pittsburg C. C. and St Louis 2¾

A recovery in Reading placed it 2½ over last night and Pennsylvania moved up 1¼ A number of specialties showed wide gains International Harvester rising 3 United Railways and Investment preferred 2½ National Biscuit preferred 2⅜ Prices hardened elsewhere in sympathy but met some realizing sales again

Selling pressure increased and the forenoon advances were turned in many cases to sharp losses The most serious reaction was in Reading which broke from 173⅞ to 1[illegible] following the announcement that only the regular dividend was declared on Central of New Jersey Other notable weak spots were among the Pacific and Southern group of railroads Louisville and Nashville gave way 2¾ Wisconsin Central 2 General Electric 1¾ Anaconda 1⅝ Union Pacific and Central Pacific 1½

The violence of the break in Reading which go down to 163 before it was stopped caused a considerable shifting of accounts elsewhere and a great deal of stock came on the market A break in Lehigh Valley in the Philadelphia market of about 13 points aggravated the liquidation in Reading General losses ran well over a point Western stocks also showed extreme weakness Union Pacific lost 3 points and Amalgamated Copper 1⅜ There was a rally later running to 1½ in Reading and 1⅜ in Union Pacific which pulled prices up substantially

The market closed firm and active Pennsylvania's aggressive rise of 2 points over last night pulled the list up and effected a substantial decrease the losses

Bonds were irregular

If "the world Owes you"—if "Fortune" is somewhat in your debt—if your "good luck" is overdue—let want advertising help you to COLLECT.

A want ad. will turn things "your way"—will sell, at a profit, something you are holding at a loss, will "untie" your "tied-up" investments by finding buyers for whatever you have to sell—will, in short, go out and "collect" what "the world owes you."

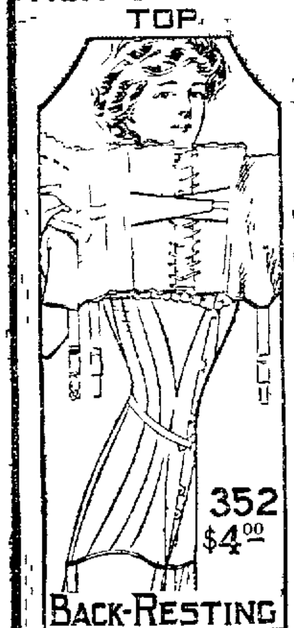
ALL NEMO TRIPLE-STRIP CORSETS AT $3.50 AND UPWARD ARE FINISHED WITH LASTIKOPS HOSE SUPPORTERS
GUARANTEED TO OUTWEAR ANY CORSET

NON-ELASTIC TOP.



LEADERSHIP

Leadership means initiative—originality, improvement; doing things first and better.

Aside from the Nemo inventions, there has been no radical improvement in corset-making for years. Changes in style, of course—models longer or shorter, deeper curves or straighter lines, at Fashion's whim; but these are mere details that are common to all.

We've Always Led!
We'll Always Lead!

This season we take another step far in advance, and finish all Nemo Corsets (at $3.50 and up) with the new Lastikops Hose Supporters, which have the patented non-elastic top, and are guaranteed to outwear any corset. Every woman knows what that means—to herself.

And there's no extra charge for this. When you buy a Nemo, you can always count on getting the most for your money—in style, in comfort, in durability.

"Self-Reducing"
$3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $8.50 and $10
The Corset that Never Had a Rival

Twelve different models—a perfect fit for every type of stout figure.

The new No. 403 has a low bust, extra-long skirt, and the new Relief Bands.

"Back-Resting"
"It Rests Your Back"—$4.00
A Marvel for Slender and Medium Figures

Every Nemo Corset is a patented specialty, which does something for you that no other corset can do.

Every Nemo is hygienically perfect—cannot injure the health, but actually preserves it.

The word "Nemo" on a corset stands for correct style, absolute comfort, and greatest durability.

Granddaughter of Bernhardt To Wed Former Philadelphian

MLLE. SIMONE BERNHARDT,
Who is to wed Edgar S. Gross.

EDGAR S. GROSS.

PARIS, Sept. 21.—All is in readiness for the wedding of Mlle. Simone Bernhardt, granddaughter of the great French actress, Sarah Bernhardt, and Edward S. Gross, eldest son of Henry B. Gross, formerly of Philadelphia, who has since taken up his residence in London, which is to be celebrated in the Cathedral of Versailles on Friday of this week.

The engagement which was announced at one of the fashionable soirees of early spring is one of long standing, the couple having met and loved while both were traveling in Scotland some years ago.

The girl, who is not yet twenty years of age, is a daughter of Maurice Bernhardt, the only son of the actress.

She is possessed of a piquant French beauty and a peculiar charm of manner inherited evidently from her gifted grandmother.

Gross, who is twenty-nine years old and a graduate of Princeton, has a wide circle of friends in this country. He makes his home with his parents at 15 Hyde Park Place, London.

MAN WHO REFUSED WIFE AID IS SCORED

Mrs. Fickel embezzled $593.76 from the estate of Bertha Bozenhardt while acting as her guardian. She was convicted, but Judge Vickey told Mrs. Fickel she could go free if she would repay the money.

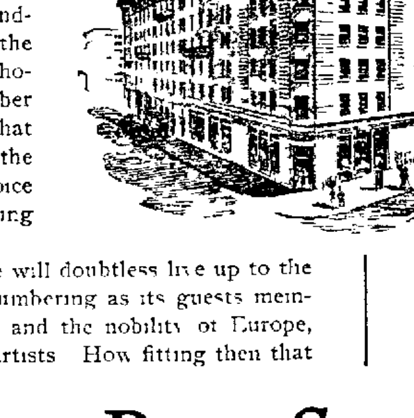
Kohler & Chase to Equip the Palace Hotel With Weber Pianos



The Palace Hotel management has commissioned the house of Kohler & Chase to install Weber Pianos throughout the establishment. This is in accordance with their aim of attaining the highest standard in every particular in the equipment of this famous hotel. The selection of the Weber is due simply to the fact that it is the best piano in the world and is the logical choice where the best of everything is demanded.

The "Palace of the future will doubtless live up to the traditions of the past, in numbering as its guests members of the Royal Families and the nobility of Europe, statesmen and the leading artists. How fitting then that in preparation for the entertainment of such distinguished guests the Weber should be selected, since the Weber is found in the homes of the wealthy classes throughout the world, in the palaces of the Royalty, in the Vatican at Rome and in the salons of the most celebrated artists.

A feature of the new Palace Hotel will be the magnificent suites in Louis XIV, Renaissance and Colonial period. In these, Weber Pianos to correspond will be installed. These superb instruments are really works of art. They testify eloquently to the supremacy of the Weber not only in its musical qualities, but also in its mechanical and artistic perfection.

The Weber Piano Supreme

The WEBER is unquestionably the first piano of the day, the preeminent instrument for the home, concert and studio. For fifty years the WEBER has been looked upon as one of the world's few really great pianos. During the last ten years it has forged steadily to the front until today it is universally looked upon as the greatest piano the world has yet produced.

Paderewski uses the WEBER. It is the only piano which meets his exacting requirements, the only instrument which gives his genius complete expression. Rosenthal, the greatest living master of piano technique, gives the WEBER preference over all others. The members of the Metropolitan Opera Company and practically all other artists of world-wide renown have stamped it with the seal of their approval.

The Weber Grand Pianola Piano

For those who love music and are yet not skilled pianists the ideal instrument is the WEBER PIANOLA PIANO, combining the Pianola and the Weber Grand Piano.

In the WEBER GRAND, pianoforte construction had reached its highest development. Adding to it the Metrostyle and Themodist Pianola—the last word in piano-playing devices—an instrument has been produced that is the superior to anything hitherto known.

Weber Pianos, $550 to $10,000. Sold by Kohler & Chase on small monthly payments.
